continue twice rewing to an impulsy in connection with the seventh race on the programme laying to be held, the stewards ordered the last event to be postpond for ten infinites. This notification was posted on the machines, but unfortunately the measurement to notify the starter was delayed on the road, and did not get to the starting post before Mr. Macmanemin had dispatched the field, this being done exceptly on the stroke of time. Under the circumstances the stream's had no option but to order the race to be recrui, which was done, and resulted in lappy winning, with Major Electron and Clytle in the places, the first race having resulted in Bryllistina the favouritely winning, with Major stream were kept bus dimens the first row active except the first row had not clytle third.

It is a second, and trylle third the state of the state of the second were kept bus directed marters, which are reported lower down. In connection with the last race, after hearing the statement of those concerned, a motion was passed exonexating the starter, Mr. F. Macmanemin, from all blame in the mater. An houre was then spen in deliberating on the position, it being eventually decified to postpone it fill this marning, the totalisator inoneys being impounded pending a decified to postpone it fill this marning, the

CONCLUDING DAY.

The concluding day's racing in connection ith the (Italiaba Troiting club's Summer esting tink place at Epsum on Saturday in connection with the Telegraph Hamil-cap, which had to be re-run on the second-day of the meeting, and after curefully con-sidering all rules bearing on the matter, decided that under rule 345 they had no power to do otherwise than pay the divi-dents on Happy and Major Election, which dushed first and second in the re-run. Rule 345 reads: "If the stewards order a race to be run again, the totalisator shall be closed as for as the first attempt is con-cerned, and may be re-opened on the second attempt as for a distinct race. The divi-dends shall be paid out necording to the result of the fluid attempt."

Speculation was brisk during the after-result of the fluid attempt."

Speculation was brisk during the aftermoon. The machines, under Messrs W. Bloundeld and Co., handled the sum of £325, as against 2359 last year, which makes a total of £10.722 for the gathering, an increase of £134. Sixteen bookunskers were beensed, the fees from this source for the three days totalting £675, a substantial increase on last year.

After the running of the Manukau Handicap, which was won easily by Mahinga, the stewards considered a complaint by the owner of the Soult mare regarding the rid-mes on the first two days of the gathering, and, after bearing the statements of the running concerned trialization and Tearson) the luquiry was adjourned.

After the running of the Dash Trot, the

the inquiry was adjormed.

After the running of the Dash Trot, the last event of the moeting, in which lago only best Mandarene by a very murrow margin, a demonstration was made against the judge (Mr. R. Absolom) by a certain section, who, evidently enrired away by their investments, bouldy volced the opinion that Mandarene had won. Seen from the press stand, the Judge's vertilet was undoubtedly a correlation. In connection with the description of the control of the

"How is that?" asked his mother.

"Well, it's this way: At school to-day.
I saw Toniny Jones putting a pin-ir the teacher's chair, so just as the teacher was about to sit down, I pulled away the chair. The master sat down on the floor, and when he got up he licked me for pulling sway the chair, and then Tommy-Jones licked me for interfering. Year I'm goin to stop helpin' people now."
