

By courtesy "N.Z. Times."

THE HERO OF THE WEEK.

Mr. John McMenamen, of "The Homestead," Terawhiti, who rendered such splendid help to the survivors of the Penguin.

RETIRED FROM ACTIVE SERVICE.

A famous Admiral, Lord Charles Beresford, whose retirement from the Channel Fleet is announced this week. "Fighting Charlie," and Admiral Sir John Fisher, the First Sea Lord, have not, it is well-known in navy circles, been in accord on all points for months past. Lord Charles Beresford merely contents himself with saying, "My business is to obey orders."

L. Emp. photo.

PETROLEUM WORKS ON FIRE.

A fire broke out at four o'clock on Wednesday morning at the works of the Taramaki Petroleum Company, and destroyed some 70 barrels of crude petroleum, representing in all some 10,000 gallons.