CHRISTENING OF THE GOVERNOR'S YOUNGEST SON.

The youngest son of Lord and Lady Plunket was christened with much ceremony by Bishop Walls, of Wellington, assisted by the Rev. C. C. Harper, at All Saints' Church, Palmerston North, on the afternoon of the 6th. The weather was delightful and a large number of spectators assembled. Their Excellencies were accompanied by Lady Irene Cathorne Hardy, Miss Hill, Mrs. H. C. Waterfield, Captain Cathorne Hardy and Shannon, A.D.C., and Mr. H. C. Waterfield (private secretary). The godparents were Miss Williams, sister-in-law of Bishop Walls, the Hon. Helen Plunket (sister), and the Hon. A. M. R. Fyfe, formerly A.D.C., and Mr. H. C. Waterfield. The boy was called Denis Kiwa, the latter being after the famous Maori navigator. After the ceremony a garden party was given at Government House, there being a large attendance.
