

OUR SAILOR LADS—PRESENTATION OF THE GOVERNOR'S MEDAL, BY HIS EXCELLENCY, AT WELLINGTON.

THROU, PHOTO.

(1) The official group on board the training ship Amokura. Commanding Officer, R.N.R., George Woods (winner of the medal), His Excellency the Governor and A.D.C., Hon. J. A. Millar (Minister for Marine), and Hon. W. C. F. Carmichael. (2) Lord Plunket and the Minister for Marine inspecting the Amokura boys. (3) His Excellency presenting his medal to George Woods, the winner. (4) George Woods, the winner, being presented with a medal by Mrs. Williams on June 17 at the Missions to Seamen's Church, Wellington. (5) Officers and instructors on board the Amokura, reading from left to right: H. Linton (instructor), J. Pomara (instructor), H. Wilson (chief steward), J. Brindle (chief officer), Commander Hooper, R.N.R., E. Pyke (chief engineer), J. Cross (storekeeper), F. Martin (instructor), J. Powell (instructor), Blair Gillon, and George Woods. The trophy in the centre was won by a watch of the Amokura for boat-pulling, and was presented by the Thorndon Dugly Club. The small photo in the centre under the cup is of Lord Plunket. (6) George Woods, the winner of the Governor's medal.