

E. Denton, photo.

MANAWATU COURSING CLUB'S MEET AT PALMERSTON NORTH.

(1) H. Jones trainer with R. W. Curtis' fawn dog Field Day, by The Marquis—Review, runner-up to Champion Proof in the Manawatu Hundred. (2) Champion Proof (winner), by Waterproof—Planet, and Field Day (runner-up), by Marquis—Review, in the slips for the final of the Manawatu Hundred. (3) G. Bulled's Respite, by Reprieve II.—Lady Lilliam, winner of the Manawatu Cup.

A SPLENDID SAILING RECORD.

The barque Jessie Craig recently made a record trip of three days 13 hours from Lyttelton to Auckland, in addition to which Captain Urquhart, 18 months ago, made the run from Melbourne to Auckland in seven days.

E. Denton, photo.
W. WEBB (EX-CHAMPION SCULLER) AND HIS BLACK DOG, CHAMPION PROOF, WINNER OF THE MANAWATU HUNDRED.

THE END OF A VEXED QUESTION.

It was decided to remove the stone piers beneath the old Parnell Railway Bridge after a lengthy controversy, and the picture shows the last of the remaining pier as it was being demolished.

Dickeson, photo.

A BUSY SCENE IN KAIKOHE.

The sitting of the Native Land Court has imparted an air of unusual life to the streets of the little North Auckland township. At this particular sitting of the Court, the business had accumulated to such an extent that Judge Gilfedder was occupied for close on four months in settling the various claims.