

CONFERENCE OF CARPENTERS AND JOINERS OF THE DOMINION, HELD IN WELLINGTON LAST WEEK.
 FRONT ROW: Messrs. A. L. Bacon (Wellington), Esch, G. Dowell (District Secretary), J. Brown (Invercargill), W. Wagner (South
 Wellington), H. Mann, F. S. Macdonald (Wellington), W. A. Appley (District Secretary), J. Hookings (Napier), W. C. Nelson (Scott
 Blount), G. U. Angus (Wellington), North, W. A. Appley (District Secretary), J. Hookings (Napier), W. C. Nelson (Scott
 Blount), F. A. V. K. ROW: Messrs. G. Kellie (Dunedin), J. Harris (Dunedin), F. A. Moady (Christchurch), W. H. Warren (Dunedin), W. Green (Picton), W. Rathbone (Wanganui), F. T. Hayes (Rotorua), Muir and Mackintosh, photo.

RUGBY FOOTBALL IN THE MANAWATU.
 E. Dutton, Photo, Palmerston North. RUGBY FOOTBALL IN THE MANAWATU.
 Folding Sevens, who defeated Kia Toa at Palmerston North by 13 to 3, in the final for the Hankin Shield.
 STANDING: Messrs. Maxted, McLean, Ryan, W. Carroll, V. Carroll, M. Noe. SITTING: Messrs. Price, Fraser, Ogley (captain), F. Pihai (president), Manawatu Rugby Association, L. Elean, Shannon, Teveta. IN FRONT: Messrs. Whisker and Reid.

TO CARRY THE COLONIAL EDITORS.
 Photograph by Campbell-Craig, London. TO CARRY THE COLONIAL EDITORS.
 This floor of B. Fish's new five-story "Standard" was left to the Imperial Press Conference by Mr. Charles Fishawell. The editors journeyed from Sheffield to Manchester in these fine cars, visiting en route Chatsworth, the seat of the Duke of Devonshire and the famous Hildon Hall.

WANGANUI POULTRY, PIGEON, AND CAGE BIRD ASSOCIATION—THE STEWARDS AND SOME VISITING EXHIBITORS.
 ON RIGHT OF BRIDGE (from front): Messrs. J. T. Shirley (Vice-president), C. L. Esdiles, J. Wickham, and H. J. Meyrick (Carterton). ON LEFT OF BRIDGE: Messrs. A. F. Landon, R. Alderson, W. Cochrane (Palmerston), J. Currie (Wellington), A.
 E. Stonex (Auckland), D. H. Robertson (Moumteville), and E. H. Holland (Gummythorpe).