(Topical photo.)

SIR JOSEPH WARD'S ARRIVAL IN ENGLAND.

On his arrival at Dover, the Premier of N.Z. was accorded a public reception, before proceeding to London, where he was to attend the Imperial Defence Conference. The photograph shows Sir Joseph Ward replying to the Mayor's speech of welcome.

MILITARY INSTRUCTIONAL CLASS AT AUCKLAND.

An eight days' class of instruction for Staff Sergeant-Majors, under the direction of Capt. Carpenter and Capt. Browne, was concluded in Auckland last week.

BACK ROW (reading from the left): Staff Sergt.-Major Walker (mounted), Staff Sergt.-Major Cardale (mounted), Staff Sergt.-Major Bell (mounted), Staff Sergt.-Major Axwell (infantry), Staff Sergt.-Major Meikle (engineers). FRONT ROW: Staff Sergt.-Major Coleman (mounted), Staff Sergt.-Major Kewish (gunnery), Capt. Carpenter, A.A.G., Lieut.-Col. Wolfe (O.C.), Capt. Browne (Chief Instructor Mounted Infantry, North Island), Staff Sergt.-Major Cheator (infantry), Staff Sergt.-Major McDonnell (infantry).

BIENNIAL CONVENTION OF THE COUNCIL OF THE NEW ZEALAND CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOUR UNION AT WELLINGTON.

Tibbutt, photo. For names see "Our Illustrations."

Tibbutt, photo.

MOTOR CYCLISTS' HILL-CLIMBING TEST.

The Wellington members of the New Zealand Motor Cycle Club held a hill-climbing test recently at Houghton Bay. The course was about a mile and a quarter, uphill all the way. The winner (marked with a cross) was W. J. Makin, who also won the trophy for the fastest time—2min. 42sec.

Muir and Mackinlay, photo.

DELEGATES TO THE FRUIT BROKERS' CONFERENCE IN WELLINGTON.

BACK ROW: D. F. Skinner, secretary (Wellington), C. A. Griffiths (Wellington), A. McFarlane (Dunedin), F. W. Haybittle (Wellington), E. O. Reilly (Dunedin), T. Paterson (Dunedin), W. Brown (Wellington), J. Marshall (Christchurch), A. W. Prew (Wellington). FRONT ROW: E. B. Bristow (Wellington), A. E. Glover, M.P. (Auckland), T. Howarth (Auckland), F. Townsend, president (Wellington), A. Tooman (Auckland), A. Moritzon (Dunedin), F. S. Moss (Dunedin).