THE HUNT CLUB BALL in Tuesday night in the Art Gallary was a decided success. The large gal-lary was divided into frawing-room and suppersoom, the small side-room being also used as a sitting-out soom.

The decorations were very effective in the drawingroom, high stands with pots of spring flowers, such as freezias, narcissi, erocuses, etc., intermingted with palms and ferns, while grouped and druped on the walls were the Christehurch Hunt Cluh colours (scarlet and white); the ball-room being draped with flags, the "colours" showing out occasionally. At one end of the drawing-room light refreshments, claret cup, etc., were available, and the supper-room, furnished with a number of small tables, wash freeman's hands, and of the most recherche description. Miss Scrivenor's band supplied the music, and the committee of the supper-room, turnished with a name, sand of the most recherche description. This afternoon another most delightful "At Home" was given by Mrs R. O'Connor. The bouse was most beautifully decorated with spring flowers, and was greatly admired.
There were two tea rooms, which proved an excellent idea, as there was no crushing, and one felt that there was no chance of having one's afternoon refreshment upset over a nice new frock! The front tea room table was sweetly pretty, being arranged with yellow jonquils and violets on a green satin centre, and festooned with
