The Philharmonic Society held a CONCERT

In the Theatre Royal last Thursday evening, and was a great success. So good were the various items that encores were the rule, especially the song "The Promise of Life," rendered by Miss G. Holdsworth, which was worthy of a first rate artiste, and for an encore she sang with excellent taste "My Soul to Heaven, My Heart to Thee," Among the others who sang an encore sale sang with executive taste "My Soul to Heaven, My Heart to Thee." Among the others who sang were Mrs Ambury, Misses B. Bayly, N. Skeet, Nixon and Messrs F. Webster, Miller, W. Black, White. Mr A. L. Cooke, whose skill as a violinist is well known, played a solo "Mazur," and for an imperative encore rendered an exquisite piece. The Society admirably interpreted the cantata "May Day," and "The Miller's Wooing." The orchestra under Mr Haigh played some very pleasing items, and Mr Fitteher, the conductor of the Society, is to be congratulated on the success attained under his tuition, and Mesdames J. Hempton and Pope are to be highly prefised.

highly praised.
Mrs W. D. Webster, with the assistance of her daughter, Mrs Robert Lusk, gave a very pleasant "AT HOME"

at her pretty residence in Fulford-st, before the latter's return to Auckland. It turned out a beautiful day, and the many guests either strolled about the garden or sat on the verandah, and listened to the music. During the afternoon tea was handed round, followed by triffes, jellies, sweets, etc. Christmas passed off very pleasantly here. On Christmas Eve there was a great crowd of people in the town, and the two bands, Town and City, gave some lively music. Services were held in several of the churches on Christmas Day, St. Mary's being very prettily decorated, and in the evening at the latter selections from "The Messiah" were sung by united choirs, in a manner that afforded a rich musical treat to those present. Mr Fletcher (organist of St. Mary's) took the conductorship, and Mr White (organist of Whiteley Memorial Church) presided at the organ.
On Boxing Day the Tavanaki Joekey Club held their
