STEVENSON-UPTON.

STEVENSON—UPTON.

All Saints' Church, Ponsonby, Auckland, presented a very animated appearance on Thursday afternoon, when Miss Mary Morton Upton, daughter of Mr J. H. Upton, was married to Mr James Meiville Stevenson, of Waingaro. The centre of the church was fully occupied by the wedding guests, while there was a large gathering of friends in other parts of the sacred edifice. The altar was decorated with a beautiful archway of arum Illies. The Ven. Archdeacon Calder officiated, and Mr Phillpot presided at the organ. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked very pretty in a rich white moire, with lace arranged to form vandykes on skirt. The bodice had a fichu of lace and transparent lace collar. She wore a white tulle veil over a tiara of orange blossoms, and carried a beautiful bouquet of choice flowers. Miss Nellie Upton attended her sister as bridesmaid, and veil over a tura or orange blossoms, and carried a beautiful bouquet of choice flowers. Miss Nellie Upton attended her sister as bridesmaid, and was attired in a white crepe-de-chine frock, and a large sea-green felt hat, trimmed with ribbon of the same rrock, and a large sea-green reit hat, trimmed with ribbon of the same shade, and white plumes and chiffon. Her bouquet was composed of yellow cloth of gold roses and ferns. Mr Ernest Stevenson acted as best man. After the ceremony the whole of the guests drove to "Okaha," Shelly Beach, where Mr and Mrs Upton held a reception, and the toast of "Bride and Bridegroom" proposed by Archdeacon Calder, was drunk in bumpers of champagne. Mr James Kirker proposed the health of the bride's parents in a happy little speech, which was daily bonoured and responded to in feeling terms by Mr Upton, who referred to the pleasure he experienced in

ONLY A COLD.

"You are not looking very well to-day; what is the matter?" "Oh, nothing, only just a coid in the nose, but it will be all right to-morrow." How often do we hear the above assertion? If people only knew the danger of a cold in the nose, they would not look upon it as a mere detail. A cold in the nose is often the fore-runner of a complication of ills, and so, too, are damp feet and caills. In order to guard against evil effects from colds the body must be kept in a healthy glow. That Bile Beans for Bilousness will do for you. This is their mode of procedure: They go direct to the liver, cleanse that organ thoroughly and set it in good working order. In their How often do we hear the above asser-

journey through the body they cause the bowels to disperse the unnecessary and impure bile in the stomach, and see that just a sufficient quantity of that fluid remains with the patient. The kidneys, and consequently the urinery organs, are repaired, and a free pussage is allowed the blood to proceed on its course of circulation. The blood rounning freely through the body of necessity brings friction or magnetism, and the friction brings warmth. This is what Bile Beans succeed in doing, and that is the reason why they are invaluable during the winter senson. journey through the body they cause
