AUCKLAND.

Dear Bee, June 18.

I was unable to include the dresses I noticed at the laying of the foundation stone of the Maori College for Girls in last week's issue. Here they are:—

Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Cornwall and York looked sweet and handsome in a black cloth costume, outlined and adorned with stitched black satin. CHRISTCHURCH

Dear Bee, June 12.

Aucklanders must have felt gratified had they heard the number of wishes expressed in Christchurch yesterday that you were having a fine day for the landing of the Royal guests. There was a general stir and air of expectancy and excitement even at this distance, many people watching the post-office clock and waiting for the dogs to be unfurled, others round Victoria Square, where the guns were to be fired. The decorations are going on apace. I hear we are to be called "the rag shop," owing to so much of the decorating depending on coloured festoons.

DOLLY VALE.

If you cannot sleep for coughing, one Keating's Lozenge will set you right. They at once check the cough and remove the cause. An enormous sale all over the world during the past 20 years proves their great value. There is absolutely no remedy so speedy and effectual. One Lozenge alone gives relief. Simple, but sure in action, they can be taken by the most delicate.
