TAKAPUNA JOCKEY CLUB'S SPRING MEETING.

The Tskapuna Jockey Club will make a commencement with the Spring Meeting on Saturday next. November 30th. The course is looking in exceptionally fine order, and pre-sent indications point to the fact that the meeting promises to be most en-joyable. With two exceptions the fields should maintain their customary strength, and as many good horses are engaged the racing should prove full of interest.

prove full of interest. The big event of the day is the St. Andrew's Handicap of 200 sovs., for which, however, only six have accept-ed. On form nothing looks more dan-gerous than Chasfe's pair, St. Ursula and St. Olga, and I expect the ma-genta jacket and white cap to prove. victorions, with Tauhei as next best. In the Cambria Hondicap it is hard. to make a prediction, as the form of the two-year-olds has not so far been properly gauged, but possibly Irish properly gauged, but possibly Irish or Sensation may be found in the van.

In the Pony Handicap Trooper looks to have a decided pull in the weights, judged by his running at Alexandra Park, as he now meets practically the same field on much better terms than when he won.

In the Trial Handicap I like the chance of Cavalry, who ran very cre-ditably at the Ellerslie meeting, and here he has but three against him.

In the Hordle Race Cavaliero has been allotted a rare load with 13st. 131b in the saddle. He is such a good one that even that impost may not stop him, but I prefer the chances of Regalia II. or Princess of Thule.

Regalia II. or Princess of Thule. Royal Conqueror has been set a fairly severe task with 12.4 to carry in the Maiden Hurdles, but I fancy he will prove equal to it, although Fire-fly or Studden may trouble him. The Hack Rece should bring out a big field, and it looks a very open event. Possibly La Polish may be found equal to scoring, with Cressy as next best.

as next best. The race of the day, however, should be the Cheltenham Handicap, for which there are seventeen accept-ors. Takapuna has a big weight in 94, but he is very well, and the dis-tance just suits him. Lady Avon is another whose. specialty is five fur-longs, while if St. Olga is started she should prove hard to beat. Solo or Orange and Blue may run forward, but I think that the place getters may be found to be Takapuna, St. Olga, and Lady Avon. and Lady Avon.
