

1. On his arrival in Auckland, Jack sets out to see his best girl. 2. On the way he commandeers some flowers, which he is sure will please her. 3. And, on arriving at her home, he whistles the well-known tune. 4. But when she appeared at the window he was unable to present her with the bouquet. 5. However, to build a quarter-deck is a very easy matter. 6. And all went well—. 7. Until—. 8. And Jack returned to his ship.
