MR CLIFFORD WALKER'S

RECITALS.

I am sure you and all our Auck-land friends will be glad to hear that Mr Clifford Walker, who so delighted us with his dramatic and humorons recitations at the Auckland Clab "At Home," is to give two drawing-room entertainments in the Choral Hall on the 27th and 28th of this month. His evenium are I hear from Walliantee the 27th and 28th of this month. His evenings are, I hear from Wellington and Christchurch, most charming, and in the Cathedral City especially he aroused the greatest enthusiasm. A quiet, refined entertainment like this, with plenty of amusement, minus vulgarity, is a great treat, is it not? And I do like a man who can thrill one in the restrained, reserved. force style which Mr Walker commands. Mind you tell all our friends about it, for I want Auckland to have as good a record for cultured tosic as Christchurch.

A VERY LARGE AT HOME

last Friday afternoon at "Berkely Symonds-street, which is beautifully adapted for entertaining of this kind, being built in an American style-no doors downstairs, only curtained archiveys. The weather was simply superb, Sol shining out bravely, as if fully upproving of the festivity. Our s, in their usual cordial and hostess warm manner, received their guests in the reception room, making every-body feel at home, from whence they wandered into whother reception-room, through the large entrance hall, up the wide staircase, to the ping-pong room, where a tournament amongst the guests was being carried on. There were chairs in every available spot, so that there was scaling accommodation for everybedy. A accommodation for everybedy. A band was in attendance, and the ex-cellent music was quite a feature of the function, the musicings being stationed in a charming alcove in the centre of the staircase, which really must have been built for that purfloated softly pose. The music through the air, making a charming accompaniment with the seductive symphonics to the clack of tongues. During the intervals of the nusic a words of conversation lew made themselves heard, or a lough rang out themselves heard, or a longh rang out softly, and the pleasant hum of con-versation grew louder and more unre-strained as the hour drew towards evening, intermingled with many lit-tle trills of feminius laughter. After-Boon tea was served in the dining-room, the table being decorated in a remarkable but unique manner. It was a Chinese out unque manner. It think it was the former), a terre-cloth was spread of crinkley paper, from the chandelier to the corners of the table were subsended rows of small Chinese lanterns, interspersed with chop-sticks and Chinese orna-meths; the centre-piece was a large Chinese lantern, Chinese lanterns, also with loosely-arranged daffodils and smallense and snowdrops, adorned the table, surrounded with cakes, triffes, and sweets of every description. The reception rooms were gaily decorated with flowers, from which delicate per-fumes floated on the air. During the afternoon Mrs flawry and Miss Bal-lens contributed songs.

Has contributed songs. Mrs Baume, autumn brown setin, with thekings and black brack; Mrs Fred.
