A VISIT TO

KOHIMARAMA.

(BY ASSETT)

I had promised myself the pleasure of leeking up J. Gullagher at this picture-que little spot for some time, and last Sunday, being in want of a walk, I bend my steps in that direction. On reaching the house situated on the hill overlooking the bay, I found, as I expected, that Gallagher was at the stables, it being now well on to feed his flue. It did not take long to reach the flue. It did not take long to reach the flue. It did not take long to reach the flue of the flue of the reach the flue, and the lade, it was time to feed up. Gallagher has eight horses in work at present, and the first I looked at was flowed selection, and the lade, it was time to feed up. Gallagher has eight horses in work at present, and the first I looked at was flowed Seaton, the thick set little daughter of Seaton Delayal and Roie, She is a pretty little thing, but is too poulted for my liking, and I do not expect her to break any records. Onewa was the next stripped for luspection, and he bears a much improved appearance, after his two races at Arondaie. This horse how looks very fit, and, though he may never aspice to great deeds on the turf I shall expect blin to show up so far. Heur Seaton on utiples the next doe, and a ulce medium sheed coit he is. In many ways be takes after the Forms family. This coit has not been seen at his best so far, as he lad a kinack of going a bit sore, and no one could say what was somewhat Interfered with him. This has somewhat Interfered with his proparation, but he will probably grow out of these troubles. On the other side of the stable I saw, for the first time, a coit by Simmer out of Cantatrice. This fellow is a two-pear-old, and bears a strong resembliance to a Yankee trotter. He is a big coit, attanding well on to 16 hands now, but carries foo much lumber, though Gallagher is looking bright and well. He is a good stamp for hurdle racing, at which both he and Beddington, who is now getting into shape, may be given a chance at the back end of the season. Roeslin, who has always done more than her share of Galagher sets some store by the, and it to be hoped the thing hit is a proper some of the paddock in which are t

NEW ZEALAND TROTTING ASSOCIA-TION,

CHRISTCHURCH, Wednesday.

CHRISTCHURCH, Wednesday,
At a meeting of the New Zealand Trotting Association to-night last year's officebearers were re-elected. The late owner of the horse Whakhologousi was called on too be statemented. The dispublication on G. W. Smart and the more Miss Hanton was removed. A letter was read from the Auckland Trotting Club, stating that in deference to the wishes of the association
it had been decided to call a special general meeting of members to after certain rules and reconstruct the club. The association expressed satisfaction at the decision of the Auckland Club to carry out the wishes of the association.

HAWKE'S BAY JOCKEY CLUB'S SPRING MEETING.

NAPIER, Wednesday.

The racing to-day, evept in one or two instances, was not exciting, the majority of the events being won easily. The two principal events the limiting Stakes and the King Edward Handinga Stakes and the King Edward Handinga Fell to the Camerbury spectsmen, Mr G. G. Stead and Sir George Clifford respectively. Quarryman's performance in the King Edward Handinga was full of merit, as he mude all his own running and won confortably in fast time. On to-day's form the Guineas to-morrow should be merely an exercise canter for Trendmill. The sum of 25004 was invested on the totalisators.

Hack Hurdles—Comfort 1. Nadadar 2.
