

A LOVELY HAT.

The lovely hat sketched is of fine white chip, curving most beautifully from the front up to the left side, and trimmed with sweeping ostrich feathers, soft draperies of fine lace, and some blush pink roses. It is one of the most perfect picture hats for summer wear one could imagine, and is altogether worthy of admiration and imitation.

THREE SERVICEABLE GOWNS.

Here are three simple designs. The first is a linen; for practical purposes let it be in scarlet or navy; if one does not suit you the other is sure to. Now this is the most expensive of my dresses, but I think you will agree with me that it is worth the money, as it is smart enough for many occasions. Furthermore, it has a delightful French hat to match, light, cool and useful.

In figure II, you will find my really short country frock, suitable for golfing, boating, or any outdoor sport. This model is in a neat black and white stripe, though it would look equally well in blue and white or pink and white zephyr. The skirt is piped at the sides and gored to allow full play round the feet. The bodice is high to the neck, finished with a black taffetas waistband, a muslin cravat at the neck, and some buttons.

Figure III, should be made in an old-fashioned print, and is an ideal house frock for town or country. A blue and white or pink and white flowered print would be pretty; a 43d. batiste would answer the purpose. These very simple, inexpensive fabrics must be nicely cut and put on with the greatest care and discretion. This skirt is gauged slightly on the hips, and has very full frills round the hem; five. I think, are enough, though seven or nine would look very smart. The bodice is in blouse fashion, finished with a large bow of coloured foulard, chiffon or what you will, and a vest of white muslin or silk, the collar being hem-stitched with the same.
