

MUST WE GO

"To suggest that we should retain one form of gambling—the totalisator—and stop another form of betting at bookmakers on racecourses, and also against the totalisator I

THE ENORMOUS CROWD OUTSIDE THE LAWN AT ELLERSLIE
The Auckland Cup meeting for 1900 was a record gathering. No more striking indication of the fascination and growth of the racecourse and its excitements could be afforded than what the picture shows.
