in the final. Pollowing are additional

LADIES CHAMPIONSHIP DOUBLES. PINAL

Miss L. Powdrell and Miss A. Gray beat Miss K. M. Nounely and Miss K. Braith-waite, 6-2, 9-T. The losers did not offer much opposition in the first set, Miss Nounelly in particular being off her game. The second set, however, was a most stubborn one, and was only decided after 16 games had been played. With the score at 4-2 in favour of Misses Powdrell and Gray, the opposing pair gradually crept up, principally through the steady play of Miss Braiting waite, and brought the score to 3 all, 6 sill and 7 sil, and then the winners ran out with the two last sets. Miss Powdrell played remarkably well on the back line, and bat the lion's share of the work at times. In four games Miss Gray did not get a stroke.

MEN'S CHAMPION DOUBLES.

MEN'S CHAMPION DOUBLES.

FINAL.

F. M. B. Fisher and J. C. Peacock beat
A. F. Widding and F. Widding, 3-6, 6-2, 1-6, 6-3, 6-0. The play in this mutch was to a large extent a repetition of the play in the final of the N.Z. championship leat week, except that Peacock and Fisher were more severe and accurate overhead. In the first set, which the Wildings won, it was notements that both Peacock and Fisher bost their services,
while the elder Widding, whose exervices,
while the elder Widding, whose exervices to comparatively simple, won the end of onleyting. In the state of the play, returning serial belist that appeared untakable. In the third set the Widdings went away with the lead, and won easily, 6-1, the veteran giving a fine exhibition of steady lobbing and net play. The fourth set was exciting, and net play. The fourth set was exciting,
and net play. The fourth set was exciting, and the Wellington pair pulled themselves together, and played better than ever.
Their service improved, and their overhead work wa more severe; their teturns in the first four games of the set ocing particularly brillant. The elder Wilding was now tiring and the champion, in trying to do more than bis fall share of work, was heavily nae-th-apped Despite his placky efforts, fisher and reacces won the jeet, 6-3; and in the fifth set the elder Wilding was heavily nae-th-apped to be pite his placky wellington men are extremely brilliant but wellington men are extremely brilliant but was harvily expected by the comparative weakness of his partner, and neither his service nor his voiceiring were up to his best form. Of the winners, Pisher was, as suall: the zone brilliant of the two, but Peacock's reverse smossh, a particularily deadly struke against tolos, was much in erideuce. In Fisher and Peacock New Zealand possess two players of extraordinary ability, who on

LADIES CHAMPIONSHIP SINGLESS

LADIES CHAMPIONSHIP SINGLES
FINAL.

Miss Nunnelly beat Miss R. Wellwood, 6-3, 4-6, 6-3. In the first set Miss Wellwood, 6-3, 4-6, 6-3. In the first set Miss Wellwood started so well that she seemed likely to overwhelm her opponent, and led at 3-4. But Miss Nunnelly, who always starts slow-ly, then woke up, and drive and placed so you have been supported by the sold of the seemed set Miss Wellwood mixed her game judiclously, and, by using her fine voileying powers, established the commanding lead of 4-0. Miss Nunnelly than passed her so clervely that she was driven to the back of the court. Miss Nunnelly than passed her so clervely that she was driven to the back of the court. Miss Nunnelly equalised at 4 all, but Miss Wellwood then took the two next games and set by hard driving and placing from side to side of the court. In the thiel set Miss Wellwood is expended to feel the effects of running before, and Miss Nunnelly, who was driving before, and Miss Nunnelly, who was driving as hard as ever, gave her little chance. The last set went to Miss Nunnelly, the hard rank as her opponent, but her fine service and her voileying powers, sided by the same rank as her opponent, but her fine service and her voileying powers, alded by her retrice off the ground strokes, should win her many champlooships in future.

LADIES HANDICAP SINGLES.

LADIES HANDICAP SINGLES.

In the semi-final, Miss Williams beat Miss Cock, 6-3, 6-2, and Miss Batham beat Miss Cook, 6-3, 6-3. The final provided a good game between Miss Williams towe 30 309 and Miss Batham, with the same handicap. Miss Williams wou, the stores being 6-4, 6-4.

LADIES' HANDICAP DOUBLES.

Misses E. Gorrie and Neville bett Misses Crowther and Barstow in the semi-final, 6-3, 3-6, 6-3, and Misses Bloomfiel and Cumming beat Misses Brounfiel and Cumming beat Misses and Wisters, 6-6, 6-3, 6-2. The final was won by Misses E. Gorrie and Neville lowe 3-6 15, who defeated Misses Bloomfield and Cum-ming receive 1-6 15), the scores being 6-4, 6-3.

MEN'S HANDICAP DOUBLES.

MEN'S HANDICAP DOUBLES.
The semi-final between Heuderson and Heather and Sellar and Robaun, was won by the former pair, 6-4, 5-4, 6-4, and this left the wieners (whose handicap was owe 15-36) to meet T. R. Grigson and A.
Brown (owe 15 46) in the final, which was won by tirigans and Brown, 6-2, 6-3.

MEN'S CHAMPIONSHIP SINGLES.

MEN'S CHAMPIONSHIP RINGLES.
The final provided a keen content between 3. C. Peacock and Harold W. Brown, and the former won after a fire set match, which took nearly three hours to play, the acorea being 6-1, 3-6, 4-6, 6-2, 6-3. Kbe match was interesting all through, and the games being two all. The champion issted better than his opposent, who, however, put up a game light, and was warmly congrammined at the conclusion of the match.

To Awamute.

The Te Awamofo Lawn Tennis Club held a most successful foursament on Monday, January 3, for trophics presented by Mrs. Rickit and Mr. von Sturmer. Throughout the day the play was most exciting. The winners were Miss. B. Mandeno and Mr. E. S. Galbraith. Mr. von Sturmer (vice-president), in an appropriate speech, made the presentations.

CHESS.

All communications to be addressed to the Chess Editor, "The Weekly Graphia and New Zealand Hail," Auckland, ## Pesition No. 23.

(From "New York Commercial Adviser.")

Rlack

Mate in two.

FORSYTH NOTATION:—7B; Kt Q6; 2q2R1K; 8; 3k2P1; 1B4P1; 2R2P2; 7Kt.

NEW ZEALAND CHESS CON-GRESS.

The Auckland Chess Club, is conjunc-tion with the Working Men's Club, are to be congratulated on the very success-ful management of the tournament for ful management of the tournament for the chess championship of the Dominion, which was concluded on Saturday last. The hon secretary of the Management Committee (Mr. Rudolph Burends), and the umpire (Mr. C. Little), were in constant attendance during the hours of play, and the competitors were unanumous in expressing satisfaction with these contents are to the high contents. play, and the competitors were unapmons in expressing satisfaction with these gentuenen for the highly creditable manner, in which their arduous duties were carried out. Chess-players throughout New Zealand have Mr. J. A. Connell to thank for the excellent reports of the proceedings furnished to the daily papers.

A social exprise was arranged for ecedings furnished to the daily papers. A social evening was arranged for Thursday, with music items, speeches, and the presentation of prizes. The Rev. H. B. Wingfield, president of the Auckland (hess Club, was in the chair, having on his right his Worship the Mayor of Auckland (Mr. O. Grey). There was a good attendance including a parighting of ladden. land (Mr. O. Grey). There was a good attendance, including a sprinkling of lades. The musical items were not forthcoming, and this was a great disappointment—a disappointment, however, that was soon forgotten in the enjoyment of the many humorous speeches that followed. Mr. Jowitt spoke of the promising form shown by the younger players, Mesers, Hicks, Rutherford, Sainsbury, and Severne Mr. Hicks style being specially comshown by the younger players, desers, Micks. Rutherford, Saimsbury, and Severne, Mr. Hicks' style being specially commended. Pretty button-holes were provided by Mrs. Grierson for competitors and members of the committee, for which the lady was accorded a hearty vote of thanks. The prizes were presented by the Mayor to the winners as follows:— Messra, Grierson and Mazon agreed to divide first and second prize-money (each received £15), and to play the tie for the title of champion only.

3rd prize, £5, Mr. A. W. O. Davies; 4th £3, Mr. R. J. Harner; 5th, £2, divided between Messra. James and Miles,

A trophy, presented by Mr. W. J. Ranger, for the best score against the prizewinners, went to Mr. C. R. Sainsbury.

The scores at the end of the last round were as follows:—

were as follows: --

	Won.	Lose
Grierson	. 8}	24
Mason	. 8	24
Davies	. 6	4)
Barnes	. 6	5
Miles	. 5}	54
James	. 51	51
Rutherfurd	. 5	6
Sainsbury	. 4	64
Rieks	. 41	6}
Freeman	. 4	7 .
Severne	4	7
Kelling	. 31	71

Game Played in the Seventh Round

White: E. Hicke; Black: E. J. Miles; Opening: King's B. Gambit. White. Black.

71 41-1-4	Post E.
1. P.K.	P K4
2 P KB1	PxP
3. B-B4	Q-R5, ch
4. K B	P Q4
5. BxP	P-KKt4
6. Kt-QP3	P QB3
7. Kt-B3	Q-R4
8. B-K:3	B-KKt5
9. P-Q4	Kt-Q2
10. Q-Q3	Kt-K2
11. B-Q2	B-Kt2
12. Kt-K2	R-Q
13. B-Kt4	Kt-K*
14. KtxKt	BxK:
15. BxKt	KZD
16. P-B3	P Bu
17. Kt-Kt	PvP, ch
18. KxP	KR-B
19. R-KB	KB-B4
20. P-KR2	B-B
21. B-Q 22. B-Kt4	Q-K t3
	P-KR4
23. B-B5	BxB
24. PxB	Q B3
25. Kt-B3	R Q4
26. R.K. ch	K-Q2
27. P-B4 28. R-K5	RxBP
28 R K5	P-Kt5
29. RxR	PxKt, ch
30. KxP	Q-K13
31. K xB	R-KKt
32 RK	Q Q3 eb
33. R K5	P KB3
34. Q-R7, cb	Resigns

Grierson and Mason Tie.

Grierson and Mason Tie.

In the play-off between Messrs. Grierson and Mason the former won the tors, and in reply to P-K4 Mason adopted the "French defence," the game, after a long atruggle, resulting in a draw. In the second game, Mason played his favourite "Zukertort opening," in which Mr. Grierson who was clearly feeling the strain of constant play more than his opponent, failed to make the best moves, and resigned on the 40th move.

Mr. Grierson, at once rose and called and resigned on the 49th move.

Mr. Grierson, at once rose and called for three cheers for the new champion, and received a similar tribute himself.

Mr. Grierson said this was his last attended to the champion of the champion. the terrers and the was his set are tempt at winning the championship, and thought he would have liked to have wound up his attempts with a success-ful one, he was satisfied that his score in this contest had dispelled the idea that his former win was a fluke.

The Players.

Mr. John Mason, the winner, has been a very consistent performer. On two previous occasions he has tied for the championship, but lost in the play-off. Mr. J. C. Grierson, the runner-up was champion of the Dominion about seven years ago, and has been the local chamyears ago, and has been the local cham-pion for many years.

Mr. F. K. Kelling, last year's champion, did not show any of his true form, and it would be very unwise to estimate the standard of his play by his score on this occasion.

Mr. R. J. Barnes has taken part in Aft. R. J. Barnes has taken part in twenty-one consecutives congresses. The last ocasion on which he won was in Auckland four years ago. Although his average of wins is by no means the best, his score is a good one, including, as It oldes, five championships.

E. H. Severne is "new blood," and he should improve his position at future contests, as the experience gained with his first attempt ought to stand him in good stead.

E. Hicks is also "new blood," and the E. Herk's is and "new flood, and the same applies to him as to Mr. Severue. The other players. Messrs. Freeman, Eainsbury, Rutherfurd, Jamos, Miles and Davies, have all taken part at previous gatherings.

gatherings.

A feature of the recent tournament was the extremely close finish. Even when the last round was in progress no less than five players had a chance of winning.

Championship Roll.

The following shows the winners of the New Zealand chess champion-hip since 1879:

1879.-H. Hookham, Christchurch, 1888.—A. M. Ollivier, 1889.—H. Hookham. 1800 - Rarnes. 1890.—Harnes. 1891.—F. V. Siedeberg. 1892.—F. V. Siedeberg. 1893.—J. Edwards (Wellington). 1893.—J. Edwards (Wellington).
 1894.—W. Mackay.
 1895.—W. Meldrum (Rangitikei).
 1896.—R. J. Barnes.
 1897.—R. J. Barnes.
 1898.—E. A. Cleland.

1900 (Easter).-W. E. Mason, 1901 (Easter).-D. Forsyth, 1901 (Christmas).-R. J. Barnes, 1901 (Christmas).—R. J. Barnez, 1902.—J. C. Grierson, 1903.—W. E. Ma-son, 1904.—A. W. O. Davies, 1905.—R. J. Barnes, 1906.—W. S. Viner (Perth, W.A.), 1908 (Easter).—A. W. O. Davis, 1908 (Christmas).—F. K. Kelling,

VOLUNTEER NOTES.

(By Rifeman.)

The No. 1 Company Auckland G.A.V. held their first parade of the year at the Drill Hall on Fiday, when the election of Mr Moody as a lieutenant took place. On Friday night the No. 2 Company C.A.V. went into annual training camp at Fort Cautley for sixteen days. This is expected to be the most successful camp that the company has been successful camp that the company has been successful camp that the company has been working hard at the gons. It has held several dayligh parades, and the specialists have put in a lot of extra work. At the end of the camp it expects to be well up the list in efficiency and big gun shooting.

A very interesting match was fired at the Marcretu Rifle Club's range between 15 men of that club and 15 of the Oramatea Mounted Rifles. The ranges were 200, 500, and 600 yards. The weather was fue, but there was a very strong and unsteady wind blowing at the 600015 range, and consequently the scores at that range were very low. The reenit was as follows: Marcretu Rifle Club: 200yds, 300; 500yds, 218; 600yds, 195; 600yds, 195; 600yds, 195; 600yds, 205; 300yds, 195; 600yds, 195; 600yds, 195; 600yds, 205; 300yds, 195; 600yds, 195; 600yds, 206; Marcretu Club won by 63.

At the annual meeting of the Auckland whick, 186 -total, 662. Marereta Cub wou by 63.

At the annual meeting of the Auckland Riffe Association beld lost week it was decided that the next shooting uncering be held on January 2nd and 3rd, 1911. Some of the residing chaotists space highly of the meeting chaotists space highly of the meeting of the meeting of the space of the residence of the space of the residence of the work of the meeting year were elected as Common Patrons, Lieutenant. Colonia Common Patrons, Lieutenant of the resident Mr. H. Britt, unaugement would be repeated by the space of the resident of the residen

Anckland Rife Association Meeting.

Anckland Rifle Association Meeting.

Taken as a whole the shooting at the Anckland Rifle Association's moveraged which is to been trought to a movement which has just been trought to a movement of the least and the state of the state of the least and the state of the state of the least and the state of the least and the state of the Executive, all conduced. Several of the move expert shots used the newly introduced aperture slights, and these, according to Captain Potter, brighed greatly to pile up some of the large scores.

That this meeting of the Association has been excellently managed is obviously shown by the high praise accorded by both visiting and local men, blent According to the Executive and the least scores. The the meeting of the Association has been excellently managed is obviously shown by the high praise accorded by both visiting and local men, blent Accorded by the visiting and local men, blent Accorded by the visiting and local men, blent and state of the Shad yet shift in while the enforcement of the inner limit has creatly expedited business, and, combined with the first rate marking, had helped more thin anything to make the various competitions run smoothly. The wind, though it had blawn strongly, had been very steady all through the marking, had helped more thin anything to make the various competitions run smoothly. The wind head attended, and the enforcement of the shooting. Capit Baritrop, of the Maschester Riffee, Felding, also prayed marking and the state of the particular of the marking has been particularly according.

Lient Willis, of the Taranaki Riffee, said: If him those responsible for the management of the marking has been particularly according to the min specialist detriments to good shooting.

These epinions, gathered from one or two representative fifteness, surveys serve to sudicate the feeding of the company gathercal at Pearses, and to have given successitisfaction, and to have carried surve green paus praine, indicates that the Executive of the Auckland little Absortation has organizing and administrative ability in an small degree.