

Independent Bush Bore & F.A.

The 1st New Zealand Cavalry Regiment
Marching in Camp

Army Medical Corps Weapons

LORD KITCHENER IN AUSTRALIA—A BUSY DAY FOR THE TROOPS.

Lord Kitchener's scheme for the Liverpool Camp near Sydney, was based on the idea of an attack on a convex. The operations occupied 35 hours, and were conducted as far as practicable under actual war conditions. In the lower half of the page the famous Field Marshal is seen being introduced to the officers of the Headquarters Staff. Lord Kitchener arrives at the Bluff on February 17, and takes his departure from Auckland on March 3.

"Town and Country Journal" photo.