

NEW ZEALAND'S GROWING COMMERCE—A BUSY SCENE AT THE RAILWAY WHARF, AUCKLAND.

The new ferro-concrete Railway Wharf, which has been built at Auckland presented a busy scene just now, with four large, ocean-going steamers alongside, taking in their valuable cargoes of New Zealand produce for the markets of the Old World. The four large steamers are the Manawatu, Manini, Wairere and Wairere.