

ON—SOLDIERS IN THE MAKING.

future efficiency of the Defence Force about to be organised."—Lord Kitchener's Despatch.

SCENES DURING THE MANOEUVRES.

of country having at its four corners Ellerslie Racecourse, Mt. Wellington, Otahuhu and Mt. Smart. The enemy was under the command of Major W. R. Bloomfield, and the defending forces were viewed. (1) One of the "A" Battery guns in action. (2) Lord Kitchener mounting his charger, at commencement of the operations. (3) Field artillery and cyclists on the march. (4) King. (5) The Field-Marshal and the veterans. (6) Field artillery. (7) Field artillery. (8) A signalling party.

SCOUTS ON THE DOMAIN CRICKET GROUND.

adults and boy scouts of the province. There were no less than 4,000 boys on parade, while the attendance was estimated at between 25,000 and 30,000. The crowd gave Lord Kitchener's motor car until he passed along the lines of veterans to the saluting base.