

Orange Blossoms.

NOTICE TO OCCASIONAL CORRESPONDENTS.

All copy intended for publication in these columns must reach the office, not later than Saturday morning, in order to ensure insertion in the current issue.

DAWSON—WALDMANN.

MISS Nellie Waldmann, fifth daughter of Mr. P. Waldmann, of Mangaone, Pongaroa, was married on June 15 at St. John's Church, to Mr. L. B. Dawson, of Newman, Eketauna, second son of Mr. S. Dawson, of Wellington. A good deal of interest was centred in the event. The Rev. Mr. Kear was the officiating minister. The bride, who was given away by her brother-in-law, Mr. E. A. Dunnage, was very prettily attired in an Empire frock of ivory white silk crystalline, trimmed with soft white satin, and silk lace and insertion. The usual veil and orange blossoms and a beautiful bouquet gave an added charm to her bridal appearance. Miss F. Waldmann, chief bridesmaid, was dressed in pale eau de nil mousseline de soie, trimmed with ivory insertion, and wore a black picture hat adorned with pretty ostrich feathers. The assistant bridesmaid, Miss Amy Jenks, wore a neat cream frock, and a green picture hat, trimmed with velvet, ribbon and feathers. Miss Rita Dunnage a niece of Mr. E. A. Dunnage, was a sweet-looking little flower-girl. Mr. W. Hollis, of Wellington, attended the bridegroom as best man, and Mr. F. Jenks, of Palmerston North, as groomsmen. The bride's travelling dress was a tailor-made navy costume.

MARTIN—CURTIS.

A pretty wedding was celebrated at the residence of the bride's parents on June 11, the contracting parties being Mr. C. Martin, youngest son of the late Mr. J. Martin, and Miss Lizzie Curtis, eldest daughter of Mr. H. Curtis, of Westport. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. R. Dart. The bride, who was given away by her father, was attired in cream voile, prettily trimmed with silk insertion. She wore the usual veil and orange blossoms, and carried a white prayer-book, the gift of her mother. The chief bridesmaid, Miss Myrtle Curtis, wore a pretty cream dress, trimmed with insertion, and carried a bouquet of cream roses and honeysuckle. The bride's two small sisters, Misses Ruby and Hinemoa, wore white silk, relieved with pink and pink silk bonnets. Mr. E. Curtis acted as best man.

BANKS—PAYZE.

A pretty wedding was solemnised at St. Andrew's Anglican Church, Cambridge, on June 23rd, the occasion being the marriage of Miss Dorothy Payze, second daughter of Mrs. F. Payze, and Mr. Sefton Banks, third son of Mrs. Banks, of "Gwynnelands." The ceremony was performed by Archdeacon Willis. The bride, who entered the church with her brother (Mr. C. Payze), looked very charming in her white satin Princess gown. The yoke and sleeves being of tucked net outlined with silk applique; her orange blossom coronal and tulle veil and a lovely shower bouquet made a charming finish to an exquisite toilette. The two little bridesmaids were Miss Thelma Banks (niece of the bridegroom) and Miss Judy McEw (cousin of the bridegroom); they both looked sweet in white silk frocks trimmed with Valenciennes lace threaded with pale blue ribbon, pale blue sashes and white felt hats trimmed with white satin ribbon, and each carried a basket of roses. Mr. Joe Banks (brother of the bridegroom) was best man, and Mr. A. J. S. Richardson was groomsmen.

After the ceremony there was a big reception at "Gwynnelands," where the rooms were beautifully decorated with white flowers by Miss Willis. The happy couple left by motor for Hamilton, en route to Rotorua, where the honeymoon will be spent. The bride's travelling costume was a navy blue cloth tailor-made and blue velvet hat with ruffled silk crown, and brown bear stole and muff. Mrs. Banks (mother of the bridegroom) wore an elegant gown of black chiffon taffeta, trimmed with jetted net and black silk insertion, scarf of black crepe de chine, and bonnet of black and white silk with black plumes and a bunch of Neapolitan violets; Mrs. Payze (mother of the bride), black satin with cream lace yoke outlined with jet, and black toque; Miss Buckland (aunt of the bridegroom), French grey cashmere with white silk vest, and black picture hat; Miss Banks (sister of the bridegroom), brown tweed tailor-made coat and skirt, and mauve toque, trimmed with shaded mauve roses and tulle; Mrs. McCaw (aunt of the bridegroom), white coat and skirt with black silk facings, and large black hat; Mrs. Norman Banks, brown tweed tailor-made coat and skirt, and mauve toque, trimmed with shades of pink; Mrs. Nelson Banks (sister of the bride), a white cloth costume, heavily braided with white braid, and steel straw hat trimmed with dark red velvet and black quills; Mrs. C. C. Buckland looked elegant in a handsome dark green cloth costume, braided with green, guimpes of cream silk, brown furs, and large white beaver hat, trimmed with long white ostrich feather and medallions of tiny silver sequins; Mrs. Doree (aunt of the bride), black silk and black mantle, black hat; Miss Doree (cousin of the bride), grey tweed tailor-made and small white felt hat, trimmed with white and pink roses; Mrs. H. Crowther, grey tweed tailor-made and burnt straw hat, trimmed with black; Mrs. E. E. Roberts, tailor-made white coat and skirt with black silk facings, white ostrich feather boa and black toque; Mrs. Nicoll, tweed coat and skirt and brown and black Napoleon hat, brown fur; Mrs. F. Ross looked sweet in pale grey crepe de chine, yoke and sleeves of tucked net outlined with cream insertion with mauve Violets running through it, grey ostrich feather boa, and black velvet picture hat with black wings; Mrs. Couper, black crepe de chine with yoke and sleeves of black tucked net, and amethyst felt hat trimmed with moire ribbon the same shade; Mrs. Taylor, dark grey tweed tailor-made and mauve toque; Miss M. Taylor, navy blue coat and skirt, and small white felt hat; Miss B. Taylor, navy blue cloth tailor-made, and natter blue hat trimmed with silk to match; Miss Myra Taylor, natter blue, frock and hat to match; Mrs. R. Reynolds, rich black silk with applique trimming and green silk toque with tiny pink roses; Mrs. J. R. S. Richardson, mole coloured cloth coat and skirt, and toque to match; Miss Richardson, green cloth tailor-made and black picture hat with black plumes and rosettes of tulle; Mrs. J. Martyn, dark grey tailor-made coat and skirt, and small green hat; Mrs. A. Stone, navy blue tailor-made, and natter blue hat; Mrs. C. Hunter, navy blue coat and skirt, and blue toque to match; Mrs. J. Stone, black coat and skirt and black hat; Mrs. Cox, black costume with yoke and sleeves of tucked net and black and white hat; Miss Cox, dark tweed coat and skirt and black hat with pink roses; Miss Clark, tabac brown chiffon taffeta with yoke of cream lace, white coque feather boa, and white felt hat trimmed with white ribbon; Mrs. A. Gane, green coat and skirt, and black and white hat; Miss Roberts, navy blue coat and skirt, and brown hat trimmed with ribbon to match; Miss Gwynneth, dark tweed coat and skirt and black and white hat; Mrs. Chitty, navy blue costume and bonnet to match; Mrs. Hammond, navy blue coat and skirt and green hat; Mrs. McCullagh, black coat and skirt, and mauve hat trimmed with black; Mrs. A. Gibbons, green striped tweed coat and skirt and vieux rose straw hat trimmed with black; Miss Hally, peacock blue cloth costume trimmed with silk applique to match, and yoke of tucked white net, and brown hat trimmed with brown satin ribbon; Miss Pickering, blue cloth coat and skirt, and green hat; Miss N. Pickering, white cloth coat and skirt and black hat; Miss Willis, brown velvet and hat to match; Miss K. Willis, dark skirt, "Burberry" coat, and black beaver hat trimmed with silver; Miss Brooks, navy blue coat and skirt and green hat; Miss Williams, navy blue coat and skirt, and black velvet hat with full silk crown, and pale blue wing; Miss F. Cusden, cream coat and skirt and cream hat with pink roses.—(Cambridge correspondent.)

LYONS—ROSCOE.

On Wednesday, June 22nd, at the Constable Street Congregational Church, Wellington, a marriage was celebrated between Mr. Gerald Lyons, eldest son of the late Mr. W. D. Lyons, and Miss Henrietta Roscoe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Roscoe. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked charming in a Princess gown of ivory charmeuse with embroideries of crystal and pearls, and a yoke of lace. Her veil was of tulle, and she carried a bouquet of white lilies. The bridesmaids, Misses M. Lyons and E. Miller, wore ivory cloth Russian costumes smartly braided, having blouses of net. Their hats of green had a doublure of pale blue, and they wore white fox furs with a posy of violets pinned on the muffs. Little Iris Vicars, who was also in attendance, wore a pretty white frock and a Dutch bonnet. The bridegroom pre-

A COUGH CURE THAT STANDS ALONE.

FOR ALMOST FIVE DECADES

BONNINGTON'S
CARRAGEEN
IRISH MOSS

Has proved the most reliable remedy for all Chest and Lung troubles. For Influenza, Coughs, Colds and Bronchitis it is unequalled as a soothing medicine and lung healer.

BONNINGTON'S IS THE ONLY GENUINE IRISH MOSS, and the only one capable of performing all that is claimed for it. Don't be induced to try something "JUST AS GOOD"—Get BONNINGTON'S.

If the name is right the cure is assured.

MISS PRISCILLA VERNE, the celebrated actress, writes:—"I still take your Irish Moss whenever I am troubled with a cold or loss of voice; I find it most helpful to me in my professional duties, and will always recommend it to my friends."

PREPARED BY
GEORGE BONNINGTON, CHRISTCHURCH.