chiffon taffeta with a guimpe of em-broidered met, and a picture hat; Mrs Izard wore amethyst cloth and a hat of the same shade; Mrs Devine, brown tailor-made and black hat: Mrs Collins, black coat and skirt, black and white toque; Mrs Gilmer, mole tailor-made, and mole hat with plumes; Mrs Parker, navy cloth, and black and white toque.

Madame Carreno Entertained.

Madame Carreno has so many friends and enthusiastic admirers here that there was an eager anxiety for invitations to meet at the Pioneer (Inb's "At Home." Many people were disappointed, as the members were firm in inviting no outsiders, so beyond the guest of honour, there were only "Pioneers" and nominated members present. The clubronne ware gray with compilion guest of honour, there were only "Pioneers" and nominated members present. The clubroons were gay with camellias and rhododendrons, whose colours toned in delightfully with the walls, and in the tearnoom were graceful vases of daffodlis. Lady Ward, who welcomed the principal guest on behalf of the club, wore a long seal coat over her black dress with its jet embroideries, her black hat had Cavalier plumes; Madame Carreno wors copper brown cachemire de soie, with bronze and dull gold embroidery, with this she had a long fur coat and a picture hat with sweeping plumes; Miss Kane, brown crepe de chine and a smart hat; Mrs. Blundell, black and white toilor-made, and black hat; Lady Glibbes, dark navy cloth, and black plumwhite tailor-made, and mack hat; Lady Gibbes, dark navy cloth, and black plum-ed hat; Mrs. Chatfield, blue souple cloth, relieved with black, black pic-ture hat; Mrs. Fulton, myrtle green tailor-made, and green toque with alu-minium buckle.

The "Old Boys" Dance.

The "Old Boys" Dance.

For seventeen years the College Old Boys' Association has had an annual dance, so it is a well-established social function. That on Wednesday night was one of the best of the series, and very gay the concert room looked with its red and white draperies and the pretty frocks of the girls. Yellow flowers decorated the supper tables, and the yellow shaded light also carried out the Association's colours. Mrs II. Blundell wore black ninon and jet: Mrs J. Blundell wore black ninon and jet: Mrs J. Blundell, black charmense draped with lace; Mrs Pronse, pompadour silk, with sleeves Jow shaded light also carried out the Association's colours. Mrs II, Blundell wore black ninon and jet: Mrs J. Blundell with lace; Mrs Pronse, pompadour silk with sheeves of lace; Mrs Johnston, black Orient satin, with jet sequines. Mrs Beere, grey chilfon tafletas, with a ligured design; Mrs Fisher, ivory satin draped with lace; Miss Beatrice Bay, ivory charmense, the corsage heavily enduroidered with pearls; Miss Blundell, petal pink ninon de soie, with lace scatves and a silver fringe; Miss Wilson, white sati draped with lace; Miss Blundell, petal pink ninon de soie, with gold embroideries: Miss Brandon, rose du embroideries: Miss Brandon, rose du Barri Liberty satin, with garniture of pearls; Miss Smith, white chiffon taft, das, with a draped tunic of embroidered with sequines; Miss Evenson, white chiffon satin; Miss Kirk (debutante), white earli, with a tengines; Miss Pierard, white early with a time of lace and bordered with sequines; Miss Warren, lilae crepe de chine and lace; Miss Lindsny, ciel blue crepe de chine and lace; Miss Lindsny, ciel blue crepe de chine and lace; Miss Lindsny, ciel blue crepe de chine and loce sheets of the series of lace; Miss Lindsny, ciel blue crepe de chine and foriental embroideries: Miss E. West, white charmense and lace; Miss E. West, white charmense and lace; Miss Hannah, pastel charmense, the tunie bordered with galon; Miss Ford, ivory colienne and lace. and lace.

At Home.

At Home.

Mrs Marchant gave an "At Home" on Wednesday afternoon. The floral decirations were unusually good and electromich admiration, many of the best flowers hailing from the North. Bronze birch foliage contrasted admirably with the yellow and white of dafloutis and marcisans in the drawing-room, while in the tea-room there was an artistic combination of pink camellias and violets. The hostess were black charmouse, the here of yoke fouched with jet; Miss Marchant, Jonos Hus charmouse, with a tunic of net of the same shade; Miss E. Marchant, bronze Tosca net, bunded with velvet of the same tone, seru lace grumpe; Mrs Balliarry, rose pink colimon, henmed with velvet of a deeper shade; Mrs Mowbray (Auckland), petal pink voide, with a yoke of lace and net; Lany Ward wore bluck crepe de chine, and a black plumed hat; Miss Ward, manve cloth, and a wide hat of the same shade; Mrs Findlay, black hat, long seal cent, and graceful dress of sample cloth; Miss Salmond, vielet cleth, and hat with wings; Mrs Fitchett, amethyst frieze, with dull gold embroidery on the yoke, amethyst hat and sable cape.

The Anglican Synos.

Owing to the fact that the Anglican Synod is in session here now, there are numbers of visiting clergy. Every after-noon, Mr. and Mrs. Sprott entertain the members and their friends at tea in the members and their friends at tea in the room adjoining that in which the Synod sits, and later on there is always a high tea for the clerky—many of whom are staying some little distance off, and do not find it easy to get back in time, owing to the short adjournment. Mr. and Mrs. Sprott's hospitality has been immensely appreciated. The meetings between town and country friends, has occasioned numb pleasure.

occasioned much pleasure.
Chief among Mrs. Sprott's voluntary assistants with dispensing ten have been Mrs. Coleridge, Misses Martin, England, Palmer, Mestayer, Powles.

The rinking craze is still going furiously although there have been a fair number of minor accidents. Owing to the fact that there is only one rink, it is a little difficult to give private parties there, as the place is so much in demand with the public. The Wellesley Club solved the difficulty on Thursday night by giving a skating party between 10 p.m. and midnight. It was a great success ond the guests are all between 10 p.m. and midnight. It was a great success and the guests are all hoping there will soon be another. Among the hosts for the occasion were: Captain Shammon, Captain Blunt, R.N., Mesws. Clarke, Turnbull, Williams, Johnson, and many others. The floor was in good condition and the band played delightful music and there was general regret when midnight struck general regret when midnight struck, and the rink was closed. Special trams and an array of taxis, motors, and cabs were in waiting to take the rinkers

Personal.

Mr. W. A. Dunn, M.R.C.S., L.R.C.P. (a son of Mr. A. S. Dunn of Otaki), who recently passed the final examinations of the Royal College of Surgeons, and the Royal College of physicians at home, has been appointed Resident Physician to the General and Eye Hospital at Swansea in Wales.

OPHELIA.

HAMILTON.

Walkato Show.

The event of the week has, of course, been the fourth Waikato Winter Show. This was opened on Thesduy afternoon at 2.30 by the president. Mr. J. S. Bond, when speeches were also made by the Mayor, and the member for the district, Mr. Greenlande.

Mayor, and the member for the district, Mr. Greenslade. The 1910 show was a great improve-Mr. Greenshule.

The 1910 show was a great improvement on other shows; things were better arranged, those likely to interfere with one another being kept apart. The platform, from which the Hamilton Orchestral Society and the Hamilton Grehestral Society and the Hamilton Band alternately gave selections, was this year placed at the end of the annexe, where the home industries were shown. Among those present on different days I noticed: Mrs. Bouglas, black coat and skirt, black hat with red roses; Mrs. Brewis, pretty green costume, green hat; Mrs. Gillies, navy costume, pretty violet hat; Mrs. Going, brown tweed costume piped with black, blue and brown hat; Mrs. Knight, stylich dark tailor-made with pretty satin front moss green toque; Mrs. Jolly, navy costume, heliotrope toque; Mrs. Jolly, navy costume, heliotrope toque; Mrs. Tolly, dark coat and skirt, pretty black lat; Mrs. Hume, navy dress, hat to match; Mrs. Fuzu, black dress, relieved with white, hat en suite; Mrs. Allen Bell, black coat and skirt, black hat; Mrs. J.I. Thompson, grey clook, green toque; Mrs. Mat., green costume and hat. black coat and skirt, black hat; Mrs. Hunter, violet dress and hat; Mrs. J. I. Thompson, grey cloak, green toque; Mrs. Wat, Watt, green coatume and hat, green motor veil; Mrs. Tompkins, black, with brown furs; Mrs. Barton-Parkes (Fremantle), green co-tume, pretty green hat; Mrs. McDiarmid, navy coat and skirt, vieux rose talt; Mrs. Bond, vieux rose tolietta and hat; Mrs. Insoll, petimia dress and toque; Mrs. Eben Wilson, grey check costume, pretty black hat; Mrs. Valder, grey dress and toque; Mrs. Harry Valder, grey dress and toque; Mrs. McLood, navy costume; green hat; Miss Brewis, in light dress and hat; Miss Houchen (Takapuna), dark grey tallornade, brown toque; Miss Rothwell, green dress and hat; Miss Rothwell, green dress and lat; Miss Lorie, grey check costume, navy hat; Miss Holloway, navy dress, nattier blue hat; Miss Walluutt, violet hat and costume; Miss

Primrose, wine-coloured costume, hat to match.

A New College.

The foundation stone of the Hamilton High School and Technical College was laid on July 7th by Mr. C. J. Parr, chair-man of the Auckland Board of Educaman of the Auckland Board of Educa-tion. Unfortunately, it was an extreme-ly wet day, which rendered it impossible for many to attend. Speeches were made by the Mayor (Mr. Young), Mr. Entrican (of the Auckland Harbour Board), as well as by Mr. Parr, who, in congratulat-ing the people of Hamilton upon this further advance, said he was sorry to see that only five acres had been set aside for this purpose as it would accelebile be for this purpose, as it would probably be found before many years had passed to be inconveniently small.

Bridge.

Bridge.

Another of the series of bridge evenings in aid of the Croquet Club was given in the Kia Ora tea-rooms by Mesdames McLeod and Hyde. A goodly number assembled, sufficient for eight tables, and a very enjoyable time was spent. Mrs. Ward was the fortunate winner of the first lady's prize, and Mr. Georgetti won the gentlemen's. Mrs. McLeod received her guests in a pretty cream eolienne frock, while Mrs. Hyde wore black silk, with cream lace vest. Among the guests were: Mrs. Brewis, in crushed strawberry, trimmed with velvet of a darker shade; Mrs. Ward, pink silk; Mrs. Georgetti, fawn silk nicely tucked; Mrs. Georgetti, fawn silk nicely tucked; Mrs. Valder, senr., wine-coloured velvet; Mrs. Bennet, grey dress trimmed with blue silk blouse; Mrs. Ewen; Mrs. Fergussou; Miss Bayly, etc., etc. Miss Bayly, etc., etc.

ZILLAH.

July 0.

ROTORUA.

Rowing Club's Ball.

The Rowing Club's annual ball was held in the Assembly Hall on Wednesday evening, and proved a brilliant success. The militating features were the weather The militating features were the weather and the floor, which were not at their best. The ballroom was transformed by touches of gay bunting, mirrors, and lycopodium, into a fairy place. Overhead was suspended an outrigger, with outspread oars and touches of the club's colours. The whole colour scheme of the ballroom, stage, and supper-room carried the club's colours of green and gold. The members of the club responsible for the decorating work were Mrs. McPherson. Matron Pownall, Miss Chrissie Smith, Miss Gordon, and Messrs. McDowell, Cherry, Harker, Hall and Redward. Amongst the occupants of the ballroom was Miss Ahna Clarke, the debutante of the occasion. Miss Done wore a white muslin, cerise-tinted roses; debutante of the occasion. Miss Donus were a white muslin, cerise-tinted roses; Miss Malfroy, pale blue silk, trimmed with eern lace and black velvet; Miss Rawson, moss velvet and lace frock; Miss Person, white; Miss Corlett, shell pink crystalline and powder and patch; Miss Chrissie Smith, black satin, with turquoise enamel ornaments; Miss Landon, tangerine silk, relieved with black satin; Miss Pownall, colleme trimmed glace silk; Miss M. Lundon, cream silk ninon over glace silk; Miss Gordon, white book muslin; Mrs Broomhall, cream taffetas, with violets; Mrs McPherson, ivory satin charmeuse Empire frock; Mrs Carter, ivory satin, with steel trimmings; satin charmouse Empire Irock; Mrs Caster, ivory satin, with steel triumings; Mrs Frank Lundon, black velvet, crimson roses; Mrs Neagle, cream lace over glace; Mrs Raw, black; Mrs Holben, opal green nun's veiling en Princesse: Miss Taylor, cream Persian hawn; Mrs Shepherd, blue satin, silver sequins; Miss Auld, shrimp pink chiffon taffetas; Mrs George, white chiffon taffetas; Mrs George, white chiffon taffetas Those in fancy dreas were: Miss Woodleock, nurse; Miss E. Robinson, "Captive Girl"; Miss Meech, poppy; Miss Penn, sunflower; Mr McCallum, stockman.

Personal.

Mr and Mrs Falloons, of Waiwera House, returned to Rotorua this week, after a fortnight's holiday spent in the

Mrs Crowther, of Grand Vue, has just returned from a holiday spent in Auckland.

Amongst those visiting Rotorna at present are Mr and Mrs H. J. Merry-weather, Mr and Mrs Gunmer, and Mr Sills, of England; Mr and Miss MacDonald, of Auckland; Mr Pearce, of Wairarapa.

Mrs Nosworthy, of Ashburton, is staying at Waiwers House, Rotorna, at present.

Miss C. Birks has returned to Rotorus from a short holiday spent in Auckland. Major C. A. R. Scott, of England, is "SKIPPERS" are not ordinary sardines. They are dainty little flaw with a delicate flavour; they are different from the old sorts. For breakfast, luncheon, or tes a verifable treat.

SKIPPER'Sardines

If you cannot procure "SEIPPER" Bardines from your groc r, kindly send his name and address to HERRY BLACKMAN, Box 870, Wellington.

ANGUS WATSON & CO., Newcastle-on-Type

England.

THE LANGHAM,

WYNDHAM-ST., AUCKLAND (3 minuted from Queen-st.) will be open to receive Guests on and after MONDAY, 6th Dec. Everything New and Ep-to-date. Beautiful Views. Quiet position, Telephone 2252,

"Montrose."

Tariff: 5s. perday or 30s. per week. and Residence

Three Minutes' from Baths and Post Ofiles. MRS. H. BURNS, Proprietress, Amobia Street, Rotorus

A HAIR DYE that does not change A colour! BLAND'S VEGETABLE HAIR DYE is quite different from all others; purely vegetable, it dyes natural colours—no metallic sheen, green or other disconcerting effects. For tree, 3/6. Ettie shade required. Money returned if not as represented—MISS CLOUGH, Ladles' Doot, 44, George Street, Dunedia.

For Balls, Parties, At Homes, Smoke Concerts, etc., Piano, Violla, Cornet, Clarinet, D Bass, Flute, etc., as required.

E. P. LANIGAN'S STRING BAND

No 50 MURDOCH ROAD. GREY LYNN.

DANCING.—will commence her Second Quarter, in Society of Arts Hall, FRIDAY, JULY 8, when she will introduce the latest English, American, and Continental Ballsoom Dances for Adults. Juvenile, Poissonly, Saturday, 16 till noon. Fersonal application uccessory. Fruis, etc., "Marere, Vanaganul avenue, Fonsonby.

A Woman Talked.

She talked shout the marvellous way in which she was able to keep her hands clean and white and fine-of how quickly she got rid of annoying blemishes-of the saving of temper, time and money. She was a loyous, happy woman, ready to turn her hands to any work, secure in the knowledge that she could always keep them right by using "SYDAL"—Wilton's Hand Emollient. Price 1/6. Chemists and Storekeepers.

^{&#}x27;LINSEED COMPOUND." The 'Stockporb medy,' for Coughs and Colds. Of 40 years'

[&]quot;LINSED COMPOUND" for Conghs and Colds, loosons philogn), allays irritation, [&]quot;LINSEED COMPOUND" for Coughs and Colds, of proven efficacy for chest complaints.

[&]quot;LINSEED COMPOUND" for Coughs and Colds; relieves Asthma and difficult breathing

[&]quot;LINSEED COMPOUND" of 40 years' proven efficacy for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitts, etc. "COAGULINE," "KLINX," "TENASITINE," coments for breakages, manufacturing pur-

[&]quot;LINSEED COMPOUND." Trade mark of Kay's Compound Essence of Linseed for Coughs and Colds,