THE ALL-ENGLAND LAWN TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP.

The All-England Lawn Tennis Championship Meeting which was played at Wimbledon, was quite an international affair, America, Germany, France, India, Australia and New Zealand sending representatives. The final was won by the famous New Zealand player, Anthony Wilding, who was in fine form throughout the meeting. The player on the left is Shiba Nihal Singh, the Indian representative, in the middle is H. Rover Barrett (England), and on the right Anthony F. Wilding (New Zealand), the present holder of the championship.
