

250,000,000 GALLONS OF WATER CONSERVED FOR AUCKLAND AT WAITAKEREI.

Mr. Pasteers finishing the surface of the impervious concrete impounding dam. (2) The valve well, from which the water will be taken off into the main. (3) Within 3 ft. 6 in. of the normal level of the impounding reservoir, taken from the opposite end of the dam. (4) Mr. A. Watkins, clerk of works. (5) Another view of the big dam.