prize-winners eame from Clairville Secgrize winners came from Clairville Sec-ondary School, Wairaraga, The priza offered by Mr. C. Y. Fell for a picture illustrating some versum on the sand piper was won by "Somia." Miss D. K. Richmond, of Wellington, was the judge.

The annual Rose Show held by the Nelson Horticultural Society was this year a superb success. The champion rose, "Le Progress," was exhibited by Mr. F. W. Hamilton. Mr. Bert Tasker rose, "Le Progress," was exhibited by Mr. F. W. Hamilton. Mr. Bert Tasker won the silver rose bowl, and Mr. F. W. Hamilton the trophy for the six best roses. The prize for the best decorated table fell to Mrs. H. Wright, Mrs. T. Scott 2. Basket of roses, Mrs. Levy; bowl of roses, Mrs. G. Kerr. Amongst those present were: Mrs Lyell, amethyst linen coat and skirt, hat en suite; Mrs. Richmond: Mrs. Sclander, pale grey voile, black hat, with wreath of pink roses; Mrs. D. Edwards, white embroidered muslin, mative hat; Mrs. Frank Hamilton, vieux rose voile, large picture hat; Miss Gibbs, green cloth coat and skirt, Moral hat: Mrs. C. Kerr, black costume, hat with roses; Mrs. G. Hoby, mauve linen, black hat; Mrs. C. Green, white muslin. hat wreathed with mauve roses; Miss Bunny, purple cloth, wide straw hat, with black roses; Mrs. and Miss Maginnity. Miss Bell, Mrs and Miss Blackett, Mrs. C. King, Mrs. Fell. Mrs. E. Jackson, Miss Gascoigne, Mrs. and Miss Tomlinson were also present. Miss Tomlinson were also present.

Croquet Party.

A delightful croquet party was the one given at the "Cliffs" by Mrs. Francis, Richmond. Some of the guests were: Miss F. Richmond. Miss Richmond, Miss Mules, Mrs. J. Sharp, Mrs. Dodson, Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Ben Lewis, Miss Huddleston, Mrs. Harrison, Mrs. Booth, Mrs. Robison. The prize was won by Mrs. Allen.

An enjoyable musical party was given An enjoyable musical party was given by Miss Lucy Hunter-Brown at her resi-dence, "Long Look-out." Some of those present were: Mrs. Robison, Miss Sylvia Fell, Miss Gibbs, Misses Maginnity, Misses Blackett, Miss Tomlinson, and Miss Atkinson.

Bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Macquarie enter-tained a number of their friends at Bridge at the "Haeremai." The first Bridge at the "Haeremai." The first prize was won by Mrs. C. H. Coote and the second by Mrs. J. Sharp. Some of the guests were: Dr. and Mrs. Barr, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Burnes, Mr. and Mrs. Coote, Mr. and Mrs. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Robison, Mrs. Booth, Mr and Mrs. Adam Burnes (Oamaru), Mrs. Harris, and Dr. and Mrs. S. Gibbs.

Colonel A. Robin has been making a short stay here.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Burnes (Osmaru) are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. P.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Price have re-turned from their visit to Wellington. DOLCE.

PICTON.

Horticultural Show.

A fair number of people interested in flowers and flower lore went to Blenheim on Thursday to see the Spring Show, and some of them carried off a few of the honours. Mrs. Riddell won many prizes for her roses, and Miss Harwood won Mrs. Duncan's trophy and the prize for the champion bloom. The show prize for the champion bloom. The shows the best Blenheim has had for eco was the best Blenheim has had for several years. Some of the Picton people present were: Mrs. T. J. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Riddell, Mrs. and Miss Allen, Mrs. Macalister, Dr. and Mrs. Redman, Mrs. Tarrant, and Misses Harwood and Datt.

The Ladies' Reading Society held their annual picnic on Friday, leaving Picton at 5 pm. in a launch for one of the pretty bays up Long Beach way, and returning about 10 p.m. A most delightful time was spent. The surroundings were most beautiful. It was an Adamies, Eden, and no one had time to misshim, anyhow. The hostesses were Dr. Paterson, Mrs. Dickson, Mrs. Vickers, Mrs. Kenny, Mrs. Dickson, Mrs. Vickers, Mrs. Kenny, Mrs. C. Philipotts, Misses Kenny, Millington, Chayfor, and Philipotts, and the givests were Mrsdames Allen, Seymour, Tripe, Hislop (2), Wellington, Healey, Haslett, Riddell, and Misses Seymour, Allen, Western, Sout, Greensill, and Dawkins. No mere man marred the occasion. The Ladies' Reading Society held their Spring Show.

The Picton Spring Show was held yes-terday, and was the best show the so-ciety has held for several years. The rage for rose-growing has made a great rage for rose-growing has made a great improvement, and many people are now interesting themselves in floriculture for the love of the roses. Mrs. Riddell was the chief prizetaker, having over thirty to her credit. Misses Dart came next. There was a good deal of healthy competition from Blenheim, the principal exhibitors from there being Mr. and Mrs. J. Conolly, Mr. and Mrs. F. Redwood, Mr. and Mrs. Aberhart, Mr. and Mrs. Holdaway, Misses Fryer (2), Reid, Mr. P. Cooke, etc. The prizes for decorated tables were awarded to Miss Fryer first, and Miss Chaytor second. The roses were very beautiful, and much interest was taken in them, and also in the chilwere very beautiful, and much interest was taken in them, and also in the children's exhibits and domestic produce, which, as usual, was first class. Vegetables also were pleasant to look at at this season of the year, and the fruit—cherries and strawberries—were ex-

Personal.

Archdeacon Ensor (Christchurch) and his son are visiting friends in the district. (Wellington) Middleton Miss Grace (Blenheim) spent a few days at Mrs. Cawte's (Mahakipawa) this

Mr. Dive, an erstwhile resident of Marlborough, is visiting friends in this enjoying trips about the Sound.

Mr. Couch is spending a week here enjoying trips about the Sound.

Mrs. T. Grace (Blenheim) is staying at Miss Blizzard's Sanatorium, near Long Beach, Queen Charlotte Sound.

Miss Scott, matron of the Picton Hospital, who left here on holiday leave, was taken ill, and unable to proceed further than Wellington.

November 10.

Pienie.

The Ladies' Golf Championship was played off on Saturday last, and resulted in a win for Mrs. Riddell. A party of ladies made a picnic of the occasion, going out to the links in the morning, and returning by train in the evening, and enjoying their lumch and afternoon tea in the golfhouse. Those present were Mesdames Vickers, Madsen. Riddell and Lucena, Misses Cragg, Seymour, Harwood and Storey (21). wood, and Storey (2).

Mrs. T. Cawte has returned to Mahakipawa from a visit to her people at Renwick.

BLENHEIM.

November 17. Horticultural Society.

Horticultural Society.

The Spring Show held by the Marlborough Horticultural Society, in the Town Hall on Tiursday last, was a great success. One noticeable feature was the variety of exquisite roses exhibited, which were much admired by fanciers. There was rather a shortage of pot plants, and the floral designs were perhaps not so mmerous as at previous shows, but those entered were ever creditable to the exhibitors. There was a very fine display of lemons shown by Mr. Fred Redwood. The domestic products were more select than numerical states. by Mr. Fred Redwood. The domestic products were more select than numer-ous, while the children's exhibits were deserving of all praise. Quite a number of Pircon people attended the show dur-ing the afternoon. Guessing competitions and a nail driving competition caused considerable interest during the evening. A few of those I noticed present were: Mrs. Riddell (Picton), Mrs. Macalister (Picton), Mrs. Redman (Picton), Mrs. Roulled (Picton), Mrs. Redman (Picton), Mrs. Reville, Mrs. Mrs. Bell (2), Mrs. Neville, Mrs. Mrs. Broughton, Mrs. Conolly, Mrs. Howard, Mrs. Innis, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Chaytor, Mrs. Ledie Gisbornet, Mrs. Redwood, Mrs. Ledie Gisbornet, Mrs. Redwood, Mrs. Allan (Picton), Misses Allen, Ball, Chapman, Ewart, B. Griffiths, Clouston (3), Neville (2), Bull, Smith, Messrs, J. Conolly, Broughton, Smale, Anderson, R. Bell, H. Hodson, W. Churchwarl, A. Davey, R. Bird, Macey, Smail, Hart, etc. and a nail driving competition caused con-

On Tuesday evening Miss Doris and Mr. On Phesialy evening Miss Doris and Mr. C. Fisher entertained a number of friends at a dance which they held in the Gro-venor Hall. The floor was in splendid order, and excellent music was supplied by Mr. Cheers, and a lovely supper was most artistically arranged on long tables at one end of the hall. Mrs. Fisher received the guests in a mative colienne gown relieved with ereme; Miss Doris Fisher looked pretty in a white silk frock. Others present were: Mrs. Elson (Wellington), black taffeta; Mrs. Florance, pale green taffeta; Mrs. E. Wiffen, ereme taffeta robe: Mrs. W. Wiffen, ereme taffeta; robe: Mrs. W. Wiffen, ereme silk; Misses Florance, pale blue crepe de chene; O. Marsh, white net; C. Clouston, creme taffeta; Elson (Wellington), pale pink silk; Z. Clouston, black velvet; Neville, pale blue taffeta frock; Neville white silk: Easther, black taffeta; Gunn (Seddon), white book muslin frock; Nosworthy (2), creme dresses; McNab, white embroidered frock; Ewart (2), white muslin; Messrs, Fisher (2), R. Bird, Sanson, W. Churchward, Barnett, Wilson, O'Mera, P. Hill, Willis (Wellington), Perrett, etc.

Personal.

Mrs. B. Coleman "Vernon" has return-

Mrs. B. Coleman, "Vernon," has returned from visiting Christeburch.

Mrs. Webster (New Plymouth) is visiting Mrs. Bennet in Maxwell-road.
Miss Connie Chouston is away on a short visit to Wellington.

Mrs. Leslie (Gisborne) is visiting the Misses Ball, Grove-road.
Mr. and Mrs. P. Stewart (Spring Creek) have returned from a short visit to the North Island. JEAN.

CHRISTCHURCH.

November 18.

Altogether Delightful. A "Bal Poudre" was given last week

A "Bal Poudre" was given last week in the Art Gallery by Mrs. A. Boyle (Ricearton) and Mrs. J. Studholme (Bealey-avenue). It was an altogether delightful dance, and the coup d'oeil of the artistically decorated room filled with the charmingly gowned and powdered dancers, was simply perfect. Garlands of pink roses were festooned from the ceiling, caught here and there with hanging baskets of lycopodium. The hand-painted programmes were wreathed with roses, and the tables in the supper-room were decorated with pink roses and pink sweet peas. The hostesses-received their guests in the ballroom. Mrs. Boyle was handsomely gowned in a black satin robe, embroidered with jet and relieved with white chiffon, under a network of crystally designed to the study of the study embroidered with jet and relieved with white chiffon, under a network of crystals; Mrs. Studholme also wore a black satin gown draped with beautiful Honiton lace, she carried a lovely bouquet of crimson roses; Mrs. Algar Williams (Wellington), a frock of rich ivory satin, made with panniers, and trimmed with lace; Miss Boyle, frock of white ninon, draped with garlands of sweet with rosebudge Wrs. J. D. Hall, mastel satin, made with panniers, and trimmed with lace; Miss Boyle, frock of white ninon, draped with garlands of sweetpink rosebude; Mrs. J. D. Hall, pastel blue ninon over sunset pink satin, with pink embroideries; Mrs. E. Studholme, cream satin with silver sequined embroidery: Mrs. Bauton (Wairarapa), gown of ivery satin and guipure lace; Mrs. Henry Aeland, amethyst crepe de chine embroidered with jewels; Miss Watson (Sydney), old rose pink crepe de soie, trimined with cream lace; Mrs. Norton Francis, white crepe de chine, with touches of silver; Miss Wood, frock of ivery net, threaded with pale blue satin; Miss Grigg (Longbeach), pale blue satin; Miss (Grigg (Longbeach), pale blue satin; Miss (Grigg (Longbeach), pale blue satin; Miss (Grigg (Longbeach), pale blue satin; Miss Hope (Timaru), pale green brocaded silk, relieved with black; the Misses Anderson, white ninon tunics over frocks of apricet silk: Miss Wilding, rose pink satin; Miss Humphreys, pale pink ninon, trimmed with cream lace; Miss Marshall (Wangami), rose pink satin and lace; Mrs. Burton, white satin dress; Miss Burton, frock of white brocade with silver and pearl embroideries; Miss H. Burton (debatante), rose pink satin dies meet sites forek of white brocade with silver and pearl embroideries; Miss II. Burton (debutante), frock of white satin, veiled with white chiffon; Mrs. George Gould, lennon yellow satin gown with sheath tunic of silver and pearl embroidered net; Mrs. A. Roberts (Westerfield). Princess gown of white satin, veiled with a tunic of black Spanish hace, the front panels being embroidered in pearls; Miss Thomas, frack of white embroidered net with pink roses; Miss Synnes, black satin with net tunic, embroidered with jet; Miss Bowden, frack of white satin with ninon overskirt; Miss Barker (Gerabline), a frack of pink and of white satin with ninon overskirt; Moss Barker (Geraldine), a fruck of pink and white pompadour silk; Miss Rhodes (Timaru), pale pink satin and lace; Miss N. Rosves, gown of silver grey satin and ninon; Mis, Arthur Elworthy (Timaru), silver grey ninon and pink rosse; Mrs. Guyon Macdonald (Orari), blue satin and eream lace; Mrs. Elgar (Wellington), mauve satin, embroidered in silver; Miss Elgar, pale blue ninon with sequined net; Miss Anson, Princesa frock of pale green satin, embroidered with Parma violets; Miss Hanmer, maize-coloured satin, trimmed with gold; Miss M. Hanmer, white satin and chiffon; Miss Seddon (Wellington), black satin with sequins; Miss Strachov, pale green crepe de chine; Miss Murray-Aynaley, white satin and lace; Miss Hope (Timarn), black satin, relieved with white chiffon; the Misses Burns, frock of pale pink satin; striped chiffon, hemmed with pink satin; Miss Williams, black crepe de chine; Miss Harcourt (Wellington), white satin and lace; Mrs. Savill (Waddington), apricet satin, veiled with lace; Mrs. P. Elworthy (Timaru), frock of nale nink satin satin satin on finale nink satin. satin and face; Mrs. Saviff (Wadni), apricot satin, veiled with Mrs. P. Elworthy (Tinaru), of pale pink satin, with of silver spangled tulle;

The Latest Fabric Summer Frocks and Blouses.

"Spunella"

PUNELLA is very clastic and gracef-' tic and graceful, and gives most charming outline to the figure. From the economic standpoint, too, this new material has much to recommend it, for it is unshrinkable and washes beautifully.

SPUNELLA is a PURE SILK FABRIC, and of British Manufacture.

Patterns and Estimates upon application.

25 Inches Wide. 4/6 per yard.

Ballantynes Christchurch.

Roughened or Reddened by work restored to their original delicacy By the use of "SYDAL."

The FACE

Sunburned or Marred by Exposure restored to its original beauty By the use of "SYDAL,"

A COOLING, HEALING EMOLLIENT.

Sold by all Chemists.

Manufactured by WILTON & CO., Ltd., 61 Cuba Street, Wellington.