Bootle was scratched for all engagements at the A.R.C. Summer Meeting at 11.40 last Wednesday.

Mr. Wallace, of Mangere, has disposed of the filly by Wairish from Leo Delaval to an Australian buyer.

Mark Rynn has made a good recovery from his recent accident, and was riding work again on Saturday morning.

Mr. S. Pitt, owner of Red Lupin, writes from Stratford that the statement that be had refused an offer of 500gs for the son of Lupin is incorrect.

How many times after an apprentice has had his first ride does he ride the race over again to the other "kids" in the stable?

The bookmakers will be operating on two lays of the Takapuna J.C. Summer Meet-ng, and then "the place that knew them ace will know them no more."

Consequent on his good gailon on Thursday morning. Palsano has shortened in price for the Auckland Cup. It takes very little to make a horse favourite nowadays.

Ruly; Sheppard beat Burnard; Murray beat Bennett; Schierning beat Price.

Ladies' Singles.—Misa Bright beat Misa K. Sherratt; Mrs. Munde beat Misa H. Sherratt; Mrs. Gover beat Mrs. Adair; Mrs. Crawford beat Mrs. Barlow; Misa McCredit beat Miss Pyke; Mrs. Burko beat Misa H. Black; Misa Bright beat Misa H. Black; Misa Bright beat Misa Amon Branca Misa McCredit. Miss Agnew, Brown; Miss McCredit beat Mrs. Crawford.

In the second round of the Men's Douhe Whataupoko Club's courts, Curtis beat Matthews and H. Barker, but owing to the inclement wen ther all other matches were postponed The Regel gelding Regain has been physicked since the Takapuna meeting, and has been having an easy time of it in consequence.

Amongst the winners at the recent Ken-sington (Sydney) meeting was 1nd Coope, which is returned as by Explosion — Lac-

The St. Clement's mare St Maria wrenched her fetlock while competing at the recent Te Awamuta meeting, and is to be treated to a lengthy spell.

The Napier-owned Kopn still retains his position as favourite for the Anekland Cup, and is going on as well at E-levslie as his best friends could wish.

After being possed in at auction last Fri-day, the golding Michaeloff was disposed of privately for Signs, at which figure he should be a cheap horse.

The St. Paul gelding Tanckaha was brought from the South by the Rurawa last week, and has gone back into his old quarters at T. A. Williams'.

One half the light-weight lockeys riding horses nowadays are afraid of their lives on their mounts, and this is probably why there is so much unreliable running.

The Menschikoff gelding, Michaeloff, is being trained at Ellersile by his new owner, the gentleman who runs under the assumed name of Mr. H. Sydney.

It is reported in the South that the Monaco gelding Te Arai is to be taken across to Australia to compete in the V.R.C. Grazel National. Te Arai is stated to be in the best of health...

The last of Soult's progeny made its appearance at Glenora Park this week, when Chorlete, by Seaton Belaval—La Cloche, forled a colt to the defunct son of St.

It is reported that the Multiform colt, Sunburut, after fulfilling his engagement in the Palmerston North Stakes, is to be brought to Auckland to contest the Royal Stakes.

The fact that the bookmaker ceases to exist after January 31 has caused all the small clubs to endeavour to get their meetings over before that date, and it will be difficult to prevent clashing.

The fatest English mail to hand brings word of the dearb of Capitain Hope John-stone, who had the honour of riding the first winner which carried the late King Edward VII's colours.

Space at Ellerslie for visiting horses is at present at a premium, and to order to accommodate his friends, the firem Lane trainer. John Rac, has been compelled to erret half; a dozen new buxes.

The ex-Auckland horse, Ainwell, which has been something of a disappointment, has again changed hands, and is now owned by Mrs. Higgott, wife of the well-known limit trainer.

It transpires that Provocation showed signs of having jarred one of his tendons after winning the Pediding Stakes, and although he was not actually lame. Mr. Bidwill did not deem it advisable to work him, and he was struck out of all his humediate engagements. Mr. Bidwill's colt, Ovation, of which great things were expected, has developed strangles, so it will be seen that the Walrarapa sportsman's bad luck still sticks to him.

Coincidences are frequent in racing, and the latest in this connection is the performance of Laxton on Tuesday morning. Luxton is trained by J. Chnafe, jr., who had a similar esperience with Prophet, exactly twelve months ago, when the Son of St. Paul left the track at the same place as Luxton did on Tuesday. As was the case with Luxton's rider, the loy on Prophet also escaped with a shaking, while the hoise was also undurt.

Would marder under the following conditions be justified? A well-known spacer rushed up to a pointer, who had a fair amount about fridge for the Anckland Crip, and said: "Hello! Have you heard Mr. Wait is not starting livinge in the 'up?" Oh lor!" said the crestfallen pointer, 'how's that? "Thaille O'Connor is starting him,' replied the sport, and then he hurried away, and still lives to work his joke on to puniers with an inquisitive turn of mind.

Southern owners are finding some diffi-culty in making satisfactory arrangements for the conveying of their horses northward for the A.R.C. Summer Meeting, and the consequence is that the visitors are very slow in putting in an appearance at Ellersile this year. To the ordinary lay-man, it would appear that it would pay the Paliway, Department to run a special horse train from Wellington and Napier to Auckland, but evidently the authorities are not of that way of thinking, as no move has been made in that direction.

has been made in that direction.

At the last meeting of the Hawke's Bay Metropolitan Committee, the chairman, Mr. Houter, drew the attention of the committee to a stalement made by Mr. Ross, M.P. for Paliciana, in the discussion upon the pellition of Mrs. Treweek, of Palmerston North, in regard to the payment of which she and on three totalisator tickets, as winning borse of the Woodville Jockey Club's February Meeting Woodville Jockey Club's February Meeting wought as a state that the Metropolitan Committee was given to the Woodville Unib. No advice was given to the Woodville Unib y he Metropolitan Committee who had no power under the rules to give advice, even had it been asked for. Further than this, the Metropolitan Committee had no power to vary or erelies any decision given by a country club in any dispute or question affecting the payment of totalisator dividends, the Roles of Raving playding that the decision of stewards shall in all such cases be final. It was to be regretived, the committee thought, that Mr. Ross should have made an inaccurate statement reflecting upon the Metropolitan Committee without baving made himself acquainted with the Rules of Ractory of the facts of the case.
