

Tibault, photo. ST. PATRICK'S COLLEGE TERTIARY CELEBRATIONS. The clergy visiting Wellington to take part in the jubilee celebrations of St. Patrick's College were entertained at Invercargill at Invercargill on Monday. The photo shows the steamer Duchess leaving Wellington with the guests on board.

Brookton, photo. "FOR THE CHILDREN'S SAKE." STREET COLLECTION IN AUCKLAND. A meeting was held in Auckland last week for the purpose of making arrangements for the street collection to be taken on Saturday, December 24, in aid of the funds of St. Vincent's Home for Children, conducted by Mother Mary Joseph, Assisi, and her Sisters. The work of the Home is supported by an overdraft at the bank of £1100, and an effort is to be made to unalterably reduce, if not liquidate it altogether. The lady collectors, to the number of about 120, will wear white sashes, on which will be printed in blue: "For the Children's Sake."

J. Blake, photo. OPENED TO THE PUBLIC—A SEASIDE RESORT FOR WADDELL. The photo shows the Waddell beach, to which a new road has just been opened up, substantially shortening the journey from the town. The beach is about four miles long, and is a favorite resort of the people of the district. The Waddell Beach G.M. Company's name may be seen just appearing over the conical point, three-quarters of the way up the headland.

Taylor, photo. WANGANUI'S NEW FIRE FIGHTER. At a cost of about £1000, the Wanganui Fire Board has recently imported a 42 horse power motor hose reel and chemical fire engine. The new engine has a speed of 25 miles an hour, and forms a valuable and efficient part of the town's fire fighting apparatus.
