FATAL FIRE IN WELLINGTON WHERE TWO MEN LOST THEIR LIVES

At 12.30 on the morning of January 3, a fire which resulted in two men being burned to death, broke out in the Wallesley boardinghouse, a building containing about 30 rooms, situated in Johnston-street, Wellington. There were about 27 boarders in the place at the time besides the landlord and his wife and children. The inmates made a hurried exit, most of them escaping with little beyond their night attire.
