

Coast Railway.

Building the East Coast Railway.

WHERE THE STEEL ROAD IS ADVANCING THROUGH THE HIGH HILLS OF POVERTY BAY.

(1) A temporary bridge near Otake, built of the trunks of blue gum. (2) The railroad at Hirtellabon's, about four miles from Otake. (3) The excavations mark the points which are to be joined by a bridge. The spot which is near Rakatoua is known as the Devil's Elbow. (4) A railway cutting above Otake.