deiled with black lace with tabs of black welvet on it; Mrs Myers were a hand-some black velvet, with some fine white lace on the bodice; Mrs A. Coleman were a lovely heliotrope and grey ainon facek; Mrs Lucas Bloomfield looked handsome, aris Lucas Bioomiett Roused Bandsome, frocked in rich cream satin with touchas of gold and a red swirl of talle in her hair; Mrs Duthie wore a lovely blue frock; Mrs C. Brown, cream lace over frock; Mrs C. Brown, cream lace over actin, with smart black signette in her hair: Mrs C. Buddle wore bins ainou; Mrs P. Lawrence, white matia and lace; Mrs Drummond Ferguson wore a lovely frock of white satin, with overdress of black chiffon with painted pink flowers on it, veiled with a tunic of blue silver dewiren net and hands of pale blue charmeuse, the effect being very charming and was much a imired; Mrs Lindsav wore s handsome black frock; Miss Cole, white meuse, the effect being very charming and was much admired; Mrs Lundars wore as handsome black frock; Miss Cote, white with overless of chiffon with pink flowers on it; Miss Gwynewn Cole wore her dainty debutante frock; Mrs Beb Isaaes was a graceful figure in ivory satin and lace, draped with a golden brown scarf; Miss Edith Isaaes wore a dainty pink minon and silver frock; Mrs Edmiston, not and lace, with deep cream lace; Mrs Greig, black; Mrs Rosenthal was a gorgeous figure in palest blue charmense satin, with tunic of lovely cloth of gold and golden embroideries, and a lovely acarf of heavy lace; Mrs. Burns, jun, wore a pretty white frock veiled with black floral minon; Mr Alex, Forguson, black net and lace over yellow silk; Miss Alice Walker, rich ivory satin with fouch of rich coral pink; Mrs George Roberts wore a rich black velvet gown draned with some exoulsite real lace; Mrs Noel Bamford wore an uncommon shade of cerise; Mrs H. O. Nolan, a dainty frock of heliofrope ninon, with pink roses over white satin; Miss Una Robbie looked channing in ivory creue de chine, with narrow bands of satin, and a dainty fouch of pink in her bair; Miss Nellee Waller wore a very smart white frock draned with a wide scarf of persimmon vellow, which was very effective; Miss Myra Feed looked nine in a dainty pink frock; Miss Hida Bloomfield wore a nale of nick, Miss Hida Roomfield wore and a fine in a dainty pink frock Miss Hida Roomfield wore and a fine of nick, Miss Hida Roomfield wore and a fine of nick, Miss Hida Roomfield wore and a fine of nick, Miss Hida Roomfield wore and a fine of nick, Miss Hida Roomfield wore and a fine of nick, Miss Hida Roomfield wore and a fine of nick, Miss Hida Roomfield wore and a fine of nick, Miss Hida Roomfield wore and a fine of nick, Miss Hida Roomfield wore and a fine of nick, Miss Hida Roomfield with a in a pale shade blue erene de chine over safin; Miss Etina Pierce looked dice in a pale shade of nink; Miss Horrocks looked nice in white; Miss Gwen Beale, who always of nink: Miss Horrocks looked nice in white; Miss Gwen Beale, who always looks nretty, wore gray charmense with amethyst embroidery; Miss Svhil Payton wore her pretty bridesmail frock, which was very becoming; Miss Stevenson, a pretty dark girl, worse oren satin with black net tunie; Miss Mary Towle wore a pretty shade of eau de nit ninon, banded with satin; Miss Lorna Towle wore white; Miss Mary Geddes, white; Miss Frater, black ninon over satin, with tonches of jetted lace; Miss Dolly Denniston, white spotted lace; Miss Winnie Colty, Miss Devore wore a charming nink ninon frock; Miss Naton (Wellington) were a short frock of white satin, with pale blue ninon tunic; Miss Winnie Colter, short white frock, with the tunic elged with a horder of lovely lace; Miss Boale (Charbridge), coronation blue and gold frock; Mrs Louisson, pale blue; mison over white satin; Miss Judy Barnett wore a pretty heliotrope ninon over white satin; Miss Judy Barnett wore a pretty heliotrope ninon over white. Wiss Judy Barnett wore a pretty heliotrope ninon over white. Wiss Judy Barnett wore a pretty heliotrope ninon over white. ninon over white satin. Miss Judy Barnett wore a pretty heliotrope ninon over white; Miss Jessie Frater, eiel blue and white ninon: Miss Snodgrass looked nice In white; Miss Nesta Thomas wore a smart frok of white satin, with gray ninon tunic: Miss Runk Buckland wore blue; Miss Hazel Buckland wore a very pretty white ninon and satin frock; Miss Irene Carr wore white, with dainty nink roses In her hair: Miss Jessie Reid; Miss Caro looked neetly in nalest oracy. Miss Frown looked pretty in palest grav; Miss Brown wore a graceful frock of palest blue with some lovely dull silver embeoidery with some lovely dull silver embroidery on it; Miss Ruby Coleman were her lovely white and silver dibutante's freek; Miss Ursula Williams (Gishorne) looked duinty In ivory charmense; Miss Marnie Herketh ware pink; Miss Brenda Stock were electric blue, with darker blue embroideries; Wiss Una Saunders was admired in her duinty heliotrone and white freek; Miss Hellahy; Miss Muriel Dyrgaville.

To each of the Jebutantes Mc Nathan presented duinty little silver glove mirrors, which they were during the evening tied with narrow white ribbon.

To Welcome Bishop and Mrs. Crossley.

The Choral Hall overflowed with peop'e on Friday might eager to welcome ne on runny right eager to weekenne their new Bishon and Mrs. Crossley. Our new Mayor, Mr. C. J. Pare, occupied the chair, and was greeted with a mount of applause, when he came on the gistform, accompanied by Mrs. Parr. They welcomed Bishop Crossley and Mrs. Crossley when they arrived. Afterwards, Mr. Parr in a brief speech, extended a citizen welcome to the guests. A series of addresses were presented to his Lordship, first by Mr. C. J. Tunks, on behalf of the clergy and people. Then a most interesting welcome from the Maoria was read by Mr. H. Hawkins. Them Tolloweds a welcome to these our mother. Mrs. Crossley gracefully rose and li-tened to their address, and book it with a sweet smile, which I am sure must have won the heart of Mr. Hone Papahia. Then the ministers of other denominations presented Bishop Crossley with a splendid address. To this, though presented last, his Lordship replied first, and seemed to be very much touched with the kindly thought and welsome embodied in the address. Bishop Crossley possesses a good musical voice, and he made a very fine speech indeed, which was listened to with the greatest attention and interest. In the most charming manner Bishop Crossley thanked Archdeacon Calder, with whom he had come so much in context for his kindly thought and helpfulness; also Canon McMurray, a parishioner of whose the Bishop claimed to tg and one he hoped would give the vicar satisfaction. His Lordship spoke of the good work done by Archdeacons Coie and Willis, and finished his speech in the most artistic manner. He said he had a family motto of which he was very proud, "Credo et amo." The message represented himself, for he had a message for them, and a heart that wished to be theirs.

Mrs. Crossley will be "at home" to receive callers from May 8th onwards for a certific proper to the coin man and to the ceive callers from May 8th onwards for a ceive c sage for the part of the part of the sage of the part of the part cewe callers from May 8th onwards for a lortnight.

At the end of the programme refreshments were headed round, a huge undertaking. The arrangements of this department were in the hands of Mra Nelpartinent were in the hands of mem .nor son, assisted by a large band of willing helpers. After this, Mrs. Crassley, who looked very charming dressed in a soft son, assisted by a large ware who helpers. After this, Mrs. Crassley, who looked very charming dressed in a soft gray evening frock, and carrying a beautiful pink bouquet, was taken sound the room by Canon McMurray and introduced to a very large number of people. Mrs. Crossley will be ready to receive visitors shortly, and will be "at home" for a fortnight from Monday, May 8th.

The Pakuranga Hunt.

Saturday was a most glerious day, and a very large number of people journeyed out in various ways to the Mangere Pound, where the first meet of the senson was held. I was not one of the Inchyones. The hospitality of the Moster (Mr. E. D. O'Rorke) and Mrs. O'Rorke was thoroughly enjoyed. Luncheon was laid in the schoolroom, and altogether everyone had a delightful outing.

T.W.C.A.

Her Excellency Lady Islington has kindly consented to become Patron of the Young Women's Christian Association of Auckland, and is much interested in the novement. Her Excellency has not only taken an interest in the sister association in Wellington, but is a real friend of the young women having personally not al. in Wellington, but is a real friend of the young women, having personally met almost all the numbers. Her kindness in speaking in the Town Hall and appealing to the people of Wellington for their support has put a new cuthusiasm and encouragement to those carrying on this nuble work. During the last few years there has been much excellent work done by the Auckland Y.W.C.A., which has made great progress. This year a Women's Club has been a long-felt want in Auckland, and, with its literary circle fills a useful and obviously required corner in the intellectual life of the Association. Invitations are issued by the President and Committee of the Y.W.C.A. for an "At Home" to greet Lady Islington at the Y.W.C.A. for an "At Home" to greet Lady Islington at the Y.W.C.A. Institute, Wellesley street E, on Thursday, May 18.

Mrs. Noel Nelson and her little daughe ter are at present on a visit to Mrs. Nelson (Syntonds-street).

son (Symonds-street).

Mr. and Mrs. E. Horton, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Richmond are visiting Okaroire. Very quietly, and in the presence of only a few relatives and friends, on the 28th March, Miss. Constance Alice Barnis coat, daughter of the late Mr. John Wall is Barniscoat, M.L.C., for so many years resident in Nelson, was married to Mr. Julian Grande, P.R.G.S., a well-known journalist, traveller, lecturer, and mountain climber, and a member of the Swiss Abrine Club. Alpine Club.

Mrs. Baume and her three sons left in the Matai on Saturday for Sax Francisco on a twelve months' visit. Sår James Mills and Miss Mills were hir James Mills and Miss Mills were passengers on the same bost.

Mrs. Hope Lewis is visiting her daughter (Mrs. Guy Williams, Masterton).

Those interested in the Plunket Nurse movement in New Zealand will be glad to learn that Lady Plunket has just succeeded in establishing a similar nurse in the town of Bray, County Wicklow. This qualified nurse took a special course at the Vincent Square Infant Hospital in Loadon, and she has now started work among the mothers and behies of Bray. Naturally, as the pioneer of the movement in Ireland, she is attracting considerable attention.

siderable attention.

Mrs. Peter Wood, of Christchurch, Mrs. Feter wood, of Unividented was been on a short visit to Auckland, returned to her home last week. She was accompanied by Mrs. Henry Brett.

Mrs. R. Cameron has left on a visit to friends in Sydney. She will be absent for a few weeks.

BEVILLE BROKEN

HAMILTON.

PHYLLIS BROUN.

May 5th

School Concert.

A terribly stormy night was unfertunately experienced on Thursday last, when the children of Hamilton East School gave a concert in the Town Hall. School gave a concert in the Town Hall. The attendance was, of course, very much amaller than would otherwise have been the case, the amount taken (over f17) being remarkably good considering the weather. The children performed their marches, songs, dances, etc., etc., etc. extremely, well, reflecting the greatest eredit upon their teachers, Miss Rocha and Miss Furze. During an interval the chairman presented attendance prizes and certificates.

Cheral Society.

Chestal Scelety.

The Hamilton Choral Society gave its first concert this season on Tuesday night in the Town Hall. The "Rose Maiden," by Frederic Cowan, was the work rendered to an appreciative andience, many of the numbers being encored. The local eborne of 60 voices was assisted by Miss Mary Cooper (Auckland) and Mr Harry Lobb (Auckland), with a Hamilton contraito, Mrs Jenkins, and also Mr A. W. Shaw, baritone. Mr Cyril Towsey wielded the baton, while accompaniments were played by Mrs II. C. Ross.

A small, informal bridge afternoon was given on Tuesday last by Mrs Valder, sen., when Mrs J. Knight was the guest of the afternoon, as she will soon be leaving the district. A few pleasant rubbers, a dainty afternoon tea, and friendly chat were the conconitants of a wery enjoyable afternoon. Mrs Valder received her guests in a pretty navy silk frock with velvet bands and cream lace west and sleeves; Mrs Harry Vaider wore grey silk crepe gown, with lovely petunia-shaded embroideries; Mrs Knight, stylish amethyst crepe, with black satin frimmings and Paisley embroidery; Mrs F. Jolly was in brown crepe de chine, with lace vest and sleeves: Mrs Tomphins, black; Mrs Bayly, black, with pretty cream lace front; Mrs Stevens, brown with embroidered lace vest and sleeves. A small, informal bridge afternoon was

At Home.

On Thursday night last Mr. and Mrs. J. Knight were "At Home" to their young friends, on the occasion of the coming out of their daughter Kathleen. The spacious Town Hall was comfortably filled, over 100 merry-makers occupying the floor. The supper room was decorated with greenery and plenty of white flowers, while the various tables scattered about were laden with a most tempting repast. Mrs. Knight received the guests in a handsome black satin dress, with tunic of black silk net, fringed with jet; Miss Kathleen Knight, debutante, dainty white charmeuse, with tunic of ninon, with bugle fringe and pearl triaming on the bodiee, beautiful white beaded swerf; Miss Dorothy Insoll, debutante, lovely white charmeuse, trimmed with silk hee, and wreaths of lift of the valley; Miss Elsis Holden, white silk voile, with embroidered net trimming; Miss Longhnan, pink sutin, with tunic of black ninon, beautifully embroidered; Miss V. Hunter, rose pink ninon over glace; Miss Brends Hunter, blue satin, trimmed with tiny wreaths of pink roses; Miss Brends Hunter, blue satin, trimmed with tiny wreaths of pink roses; Miss Chambert, white over pink; Miss Fourt Lumbert, white hack lace; Miss Reid, heliotrope embroidered chilfon taffeta; Miss Campbell, butter-Miss Reid, heliotrope embreidered chiifon taffeta; Miss Campbell, butter-

sup pallette silk trimmed with blacks Muss Swinburns, primrose setia map paintes alls trimmed with bladity Ham Swinburna, printrone satia, covered with Isco; Miss Elsie McNicoll, ross pink silk draped with ninos; Misd Aitken, cream locs over silk; Miss Rind Miss Evisherma primrose satis, coressed with lace; Miss Elsie McNicell, result pink silk draped with misson; Miss Althen, cream lace ever silk; Miss Ring Althen, cream lace ever silk; Miss Ring Hissen, white salves trimmings; Miss Derothy Ring, whith salves trimmings; Miss Derothy Ring, pink misson over blue silk; Miss Alice hond, pale green silk; Miss G. Tompkins, pale Mise; Miss Bollard, white tuff-ta with sequin trimming; Miss Wilhimson, cream chiffon taffeta, with spangled fromt; Miss Hay (Auckland), pale satin, with headed trimming; Miss Graham, buttereup silk, with touches of black; Miss Eims, pale pink silk, with pearl ambroideries; Miss Crase (Whangarei), grey creps de chine over pink, with pearl trimmings; Miss W. Newell (Famshere), pink silk voile; Miss Stevens, white satin, with silver guimpe, lowely pink scarf; Miss Oliver, white sollered mustin; Miss Margaret Offives, white silk; Miss Bessie Randend, blue silk, with panel of white merchandlered mustin; Miss Margaret Offives, white silk, Miss Bessie Randend, blue silk, with panel of white holes; Miss Lawon, cream voile, pale blue scarf; Miss Hollowny, white chiffon taffets; Miss Gillespie, pale blue satin Princess frock, silver trimmed; Miss — Edgecumbe, cream; Miss Cussen, satin Princess frock, silver trimmed lace toilette; Miss Myra Cussen, pale dotted drop chiffon scarf; Mrs. Cussen, black chiffon over white silk; Miss Brigham, cream lace; Miss Myra Cussen, black chiffon over white silk; Miss Brigham, cream lace; Miss N. Pickering, pretty white charmeus frock; Miss Lulu McAllum, pink voile, with motifs of darker shade; Miss Thompson, cream merv. silk; Miss Roche, cream; Miss G. Roche, blue silk, letticed with ribbon, blue devented in pale blue uinco over white panel merve and merve silk; Miss Brigham, cream lace; Miss I. nsoll, black velvet; Mrs Stevens, black silk. A few of the profit of the panel of the

TE KUITI.

May 5th_

At Home

Last Thursday, Mrs W. Gadsby gave a very enjoyable "At Home" in thein new house which stands in a most beautiful position amongst the hills. Aftermoon tea was served in the dining room. Mrs Gadsby received her guests in spretty brown dress, trimmed with brown silk and braid; Mrs Alfred tadsby, purple, relieved with white. Amongst the number of guests were: Mrs Boddis, brown costume, brown and fawst toque; Mrs Dransfield, very pretty grey eloth costume, grey velve toque, black wings; Mrs Kelso, navy costume, purple velvet toque; Mrs Pine, grey and black striped costume, red and black hat; Aliss I. Pine, green striped costume, navy blue hat; Mrs Vercoe, navy blue costume, pretty green velvet hat with white wings; Miss Grattan, brown velvet, fawn chipped hat frimmed with pink; Miss Day, navy comme herom herow herer tonne. Mrs Power. white osprey.

Dr. and Mrs. Fullerton and family, accompanied by Miss Sinclair, have left Te Kuiti for Sydney, en route for Eng-Te Kuiti for Sydney, en route for Eng-land. Dr. Fullerton has been very ill for some weeks, and it is hoped that the long rest and change will restore him to health again. Dr. Carolan, of Avondale, has taken over Dr. Fullerton's practice during his absence. Mrs. E. H. Hardy has gone to Rotorus.

for a few weeks.