skirt, hat to match, with bulberry mount; Mrs. K. Cowper, black cordedup cont and skirt, black stole and muffblack fur toque; Miss Gould (Auckland), dark tweed coat and skirt, straw hat with wreaths of shaded flowers; Mrs. Peel, dark grey cloth costume, beautiful sealskin stole and muff, with anble tails, grey atraw hat with wings; Mrs. Gill Carey, electric blue hopsack coat and skirt, black hat, black wings, and touch of gold; Miss Coots (Hawers), navy blue coat and skirt, large black hat, with wreath of shaded Bowers: Mrs. T. Saunders, pale mauve coat and skirt, large mauve satin hat, with wings in the same tones; Mrs. F. Cowper (Dannevirke), brown flecked tweed coat, black satin revers, golden brown satin hat, with black wings; Mrs. Chamberlain, violet inted coat and skirt, becoming violet hat with wings to match; Mrs. Greenwood, blue and white flecked Harris tweed, cream lace vest, pretty velvet toque; Miss O'Rvien, green Norfolk Harris tweed coat and skirt, hat to match, with bulberry mount; Mrs. F. Moore, black coat and skirt, hack hat with ostrich plumes, grey fur stole and word. eable tails, grey straw hat with wings; with ostrich plumes, grey fur stole and muff; Mrs. Montgonerie, black silk costume, black silk mantle, black atric. Mrs. ∆. ∴ black •ou muff: Mrs. Montgonserie. black silk costume, black silk mantle. black bonnet, with touch of white in it: Miss Danley, navy blue coat and skirt, floral toque composed of violets, grey furs: Mrs. S. Gorden, navy blue coat and skirt, white feather bus, black hat with blue satin crown swathed with the same: Miss G. Christie, navy blue coat and skirt, black velvel toque, grey fox furs: Miss A. Cowper, black and white coat and skirt, blue straw hat with wings: Miss N. Cowper, navy blue coat and skirt, black that with black and white wings: Mrs. Bayley, long black velvel coat profusely hraided, black velvel toque.

The skating rink still continues to be The skating rink still continues to be very well patronised. Amongst those I have noticed lately were: Miss Gresson. Miss Hanken. Miss Stevenson, Miss Reid Australia). Miss Hanner (Christchurch). Miss Brettargh. Miss Thomson (Sydney). Miss Wilford. Miss Radley, Miss Dynnock. Miss Spencer. Miss Brown. Miss Kerr. Miss P. Jones. Messrs. Stevenson, Reid. Wilson. Brettargh. Chamberlain. Jones, Dr. H. Christie, Brown, and others.

Miss Reid (Australia) is the guest of Mrs. Hurst, in Wangamii.

Amongst those in Wanganui for the Amongst those in wangamus steeplechase meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Loughnan (Palmerston). Mrs. Potts (Pal. Abraham (Palmerston). Mrs. Jones (Palmerston). William (Palmerston). William (Palmerston). Wilson merston). Mrs. Jones (Palmerston North). Mr. T. G. Wilson, Miss Wilson (Bulls), Mr. and Mrs. Strang (Palmersion North)

Mr. and Mrs. McGregor (Wairarapa) are spending a few days in Wanganui.

: Mr. and Mrs. Fisher (Dunedin) are spending a few days in Wangami.

- Miss D. Christie of Wanganui is stay-ing with friends in Rangitikei. HUIA, STRATFORD.

rarewell Dance.

There has been quite an exodus of people from our town during the last few weeks, the latest to leave being Mrs. R. C. Rubinson, to whom a vers enjoyable dance was given last Friday, when about forty couples were present. The hall looked very gay with the pretty dresses worn by the ladies, and the sup-- -, -- see some, and the sup oot tempting with its decora of holly, rich in its profusion of berries. Mrs. Fuokes was gowned in k velvet, richly trimmed with jet, ming jet ornaments in confure: Mrs. Wake wore very pretty pearl grey char-meuse, with overdress of chillon trimmed meuse, with overdress of chillon trummed with landsome guipure of the same tone, a garmiture of shell-pink chiffon on bodice; Mrs. Anderson, buttercup chiffon taffeta: Mrs. E. C. Robinson, white met trimmed with satis, red poppies on cor-eage: Mrs. Young, hand-come black se-quined set over black silk; Mrs. Johnquined act over black silk; Mrs. Johnstone, becoming gown of tangerine satin and brocade: Mrs. Porritt. Idainty white silk; Mrs. Stubbs, black silk; Mrs. Glasgow, aske blue ninon de soie, gold garniture ou bodice: Mrs. Crawshaw, black embroidered net over silk; Mrs. Hogg, black voile, becoming headdress of red tosse; Mrs. Kimbell (Hawers), white taffeta directoire gown trimmed silk braid, cluster of pink roses in conflure; Mrs. Wilkie, black voile: Mrs. Coppings: Mrs. Wilkie, black voile: Mrs. Coppings with bertile of Alencon lace, becoming amber and steel hair adorament: Mrs. Menser and steel hair adorament: Mrs. Menser siles, white taffeta, trimmed crystalline zies, white taffeta, trimmed crystalline net: Miss James, white, relieved with red: Miss Nancy James, becoming salmon pink dress: Miss Jorce Glynes (Anckland), mole-volumed toile with cerise sash: Mrs. Melville (Dunedin), white ner over white silk. Oriental trimming: ner over white silk. Oriental trimming: Miss Crawshaw (Syduey), cream Rus-sian net over pink, sequined hair bands; Miss Black, black voile, blue rosettes in hair: Miss White (Hawera), sea green charmense, with chillon overdress of selfcharmense, with chillon overdress of self colour: Miss Anderson, can de nil silk and net: Miss Stronach: Miss Fussell, white silk, relieved with black velvet: Messrs Grant, Fookes, Wake, Young, Crawshaw (2), Robinson (2), Stubbe, Menzies, Anderson (3), Dr. Steven, Wil-kie, James (2). Spence, Vaughau, Fus-sell, Webster, Connino Cilesony. kie. James (2) Spence Vaugha sell, Webster, Copping, Glasgow.

Mrs Crawshaw entertained a number of young people on Saturday evening, the "party" later going on to the rink,

Mr and Mrs Wilfred Rennel left for Mr and Mrs Wilfred Rennel left for Wanganni on Monday, where they intend to take up their residence.

Mr J. L. Stanford returned by the mail train on Saturday, after many weeks spent in Australia.

Mr and Mrs W. C. Raikes were passengers by the mail train on Monday for New Pirmouth, soing next, for engers by the mail train on Monday acmonth's bolider

Mrs E. C. Robinson left for Auckland

on Monday, where she intends to pursue her musical studies. Mrs Paget returned from Wanganni on Friday, where she had been to attend

SOUTH TARANAKI.

The second of Miss Douglas' assemblies was held last Wednesday evening, and proved to be most enjoyable. The night was cold, and the floor and music excellent. Miss Donglas wore a pale pink taffeta, cream coat; Mrs. Moore, black frock; Mrs. Glenn, black silk, dark gre-cost: Mrs. Webster, black sestin incocoat; Mrs. Webster, black satin, pretty Oriental scarf; Mrs. Bell, pink charmeone trimmed with silver; Mrs. Wylds, cream satin, relieved with red; Mrs. R. McLenn, blue taffeta with a silver spangled over-dress; Mrs. Bright, black, with touches of orderes: Mrs. Bright, black, with touches of gold on corsage; Mrs. Page, black sequinced net; Mrs. Parkinson, black sequinced net; Mrs. Parkinson, black taffeta with ninon tunic and steel trimminge; Mrs. O'Callaghan, cream crepe de chine with bands of gold embroidery; Miss Brett, pale pink charmeuse with sequin trimming; Miss Reilly, pink charmeuse; Miss C. Reilly, cream ninon, tunic and corsage finished with siher; Miss Glenn, black taffeta; Miss Q. Glenn, white Indian muslin, trimmed with embroidery; Miss Carey, pale green crepe Empire frock; Miss Stace, white charmeuse with ninon tunic edged in silver; Miss Williamson, frock of floral chiffon; Miss Johnson, turquoise blue silk; Miss Williams, heliotrope with tunic of darker shade of chiffon; Miss B. Nolan, pink silk crepe; Miss L. Nolan, white muslin; Miss E. Moore, maire-coloured silk; Miss Wills, Miss Wills, Miss Wills, Miss Wells, Cream (each Kailab.) Miss E. Moore, maize-coloured silk; Miss Wells (Waikato), cream frock, finished with eequin trimmings; Miss Glynes with sequin trimmings: Miss Glynes (New Plymouth), grey taffeta, relieved with black; Miss Stringer, white muslin; Miss W. Stringer, saxe blue charmense with tunic of ninon and touches of silver tissue; Miss White, wine-coloured silk.

Personal.

Mrs. McDiarmid has returned from Wellington.

Wellington.

Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Cassell left last Monday on a six months' trip to England.
During their absence Architeacon and
Mrs. Evans (New Plymouth) will have charge of this parish.

Miss Glynes (New Plymouth) is the guest of Mrs. Moore. Miss Wells (Waikato) is the guest of

Mrs. Bell

Mrs. and Miss Duckworth, who have been visiting Hawera, have returned to Danwlin

Miss Ward, who has been the mest of Mrs. Barton, has returned to Auckland, Mrs. Fairburn (Wanganui) is visiting rs. Good.
Miss M. Moore is visiting Wellington.

Miss Beetham, who has been the Dis-trict Nurse here for twelve months, has resigned, and returned to Auckland

Miss Douglas is visiting friends in VAOL.

NELSON.

June 1.

Ball at "Mountrath."

A very enjoyable dance was given y Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Coore, at their esidence. "Mountrath." last week, for heir daughter. Miss Ivy Coote, who restance. Mountrain. Last week, for their daughter. Miss Ivy Coote, who made her debut, was charmingly gowned in white satin, with short tunic of white chiffon, deeply banded with silk embroidered lace; Mrs. Coote wore a becoming frock of black satin, with a deep hem of Coronation-blue satin, the overdress being of black silk fisher net, her shoulder searf was of royal blue ninon and silver sequins; Miss Myrtle Coote wore a white silk frock, with pale pink sashy Mrs. Barr was wearing a hand-one gown of green satin charmeuse; Mrs. Archie Hamilton (India), pale blue chiffon and lace frock; Mrs. G. Hoby, pretty gown of white duchesse satin, the ceinture and tunic trimmed with pink rosebuds; Mrs. Burnes, white satin, with handsome overdress of black net embroidered in silver; their daughter. dress of black net embroidered in silver;

Mrs. Wright (Cable Bay), blue and white striped mnow; Mrs. D. Edwards, lotus blue satis, with tunic of jewelled chiffon; Mrs. McLaren, black silk, gows; Mrs. Noel Adams, pretty gown of maise satis, with inlet panel of dyed lace; Mrs. H. Cock, buttercup yellow taffetas; Mrs. Guy Ellis (Tadmor), black chiffon frock; Mrs. Robison, pale grey ninon, pink rose rusked in the results. Mrs. Robison, pale grey ninon, pink rose tucked in the ceinture: Miss Richmond, tucked in the ceinture; Miss Richmond, white satin with gold embroidery; Miss Iva Hudson (Tapawera), white nilk frock; Miss E Ledger, pale blue ninon; Miss J. Ledger, pretty black chiffon gown; Miss E. Booth, green satin; Miss D. Booth, white satin; Miss D. Wetts, yellow taffetas; Miss Hodson, black net over natin; Miss Hodson, black net gown; Miss Barkett, pale green charmeuse; Miss B. Sharp, turquoise satin; Miss R. Sherby under nate blue silk; Miss Miss Berchwiden, nate blue silk; Miss meuse: Miss B. Sharp, turquoise satin; Miss K. Blechynden, pale blue sik; Miss Lancas, ooft white satin: Miss G. Clark, pale blue taffeta; Miss F. Clark, white chiffon over pink silk; Miss Tomlinson, raspberry taffetas; Miss K. Sclandere, sky antin with net tunic: Miss C. Greenfeld, white chiffon: Miss Haggitt (Dunedin), pale blue ninon: Miss Gilkison, white chiffon taffeta and silver. Others research were:—Messrs C. H. and J. white chiffon taiteta and suver, somera present were:—Messrs, C. H. and J. Coote, Percy Adams, G. Ellis, Edwards, Hamilton (4), N. Adams, Wright (Cable), Hoby, Houlker, Booth (2), Lerien, ck. Cock, McLaren, Robison, Blechyn-Harria den. Warnock, Dodson, Burnes, Harris, Brown (Stoke), Dr. Barr and Captain A. Hamilton.

Euchre Party.

Enchre Party.

A delightful euchre party was given by Mrs. Sclanders for her guest. Miss Somervill (Masterton). After several games of progressive enchre had been played, the prizes were won by Miss Houlker and Miss Frances Clark. Mrs. Sclanders was nearing black chiffon over silk: Miss Kathleen Sclanders, pretty, white silk frock: Miss Somervill, cream silk and lace: Miss Richmond, white chiffon over silk; Miss Backett, violet velvet: Miss C. Edwards, white silk; Miss E Booth, einnamon ninon over taffeta of the same shade: Miss Stevens, feta of the same shade: Miss Stevens, cream crepe: Misses Maginnity, white voile frocks: Miss J. Ledgert, white muslin frock; Miss Houlker, pale green crepon over sik; Miss Leggart, soft white sik; Misse Clark, pale blue nimon; Miss D. Webb, black chiffon frock; Miss L. Lucas, grey satin; Miss Iv, Coote, white muslin and Valenciennes lace; Miss D. Booth, cream embroidered silk; Miss Hodson, black chiffon. feta of the same shade: Miss Stevens

Personal.

Mr. and Mrs. Brigg-Wither have re-Island.

Mrs. Simpson, who has been the guest Mrs. Lyall, has returned to her home in Wellington.

Mrs. Somervill (Masterton) is staying

Mrs. Schanders.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Broad have returned from their visit to Wellington.

Mrs. Claud Harris (Tadmor) is visiting friends bere.

PICTON.

Musical Club.

On Monday evening the Musical Club met at Dr. and Mrs Redman's home in Dublin-street. Among those present were Mrs and Miss Haslett. Mrs and the Misses Macalister, Captain and Mrs Bur-

RENDELLS Outfitters by appointment to HIS MAJESTY THE BABY!

Baby Outfit Parcels

We have been sending these Outlits to delighted customers for 12 years, and the parcels, for value, have become PAMOUS THROUGHOUT NEW ZEALAND.

No. 2 BABY OUTFIT - 60/- Complete

No. 1 BABY OUTFIT - 40/- Complete.

- 6 Shirts, or 5 Silk and Wool Vests 2 Swalthes
- Night Gowns 3 Day Gowns
- ng Flannske 3 Flampsi Binders
- 1 des. Turkish Towelling Squares Puff, Box and Powder 1 Nice Robe or Shawl
- 6 Shirts, or 5 Silk and wood you 5 Night Gowns 5 Preftly-trimmed Day Gowns 1 Monthly Gown 2 Finance Binders, 2 Swaithes 1 Silk or Woollen Jacket

6 Shirts, or S Silk and Wool Vests S Long Flanneiz, scalloped S Night Gowns 1 dos Turkish Nursery Squares 1 Wonthly Gown 1 Waterproof Cot Equare 1 Long Shirt Pull. Box and Powder | Mandeeme Robe or Shaw!

RENDELLS LTD., Auckland. We Pay the Postage.