NEW ZEALAND SAILOR BOYS ENTERTAINED AT GOVERNMENT HOUSE.

Last week the boys and officers of the Government training ship Amokura were entertained by their Excellencies Lord and Lady Islington at a sports afternoon at Government House. A programme of contests occupied the earlier portion of the afternoon, after which the boys sat down to refreshments in the marble hall under their Excellencies' personal supervision. Afterwards the prizes provided by Lord Islington were presented by her Excellency to the winners. The above photo shows Lord and Lady Islington surrounded by their guests. Reading from left to right: Mr. E. G. Martin, Mr. V. Barnsdale (chief officer), Mrs. Gulse, Lord Islington, Lady Islington, Captain Hooper, Mr. A. Gulse (private secretary), Mr. J. Power, Mr. C. Richmond.
