smart hats; Miss M. Lambe, grey, with pretty hat; Mrs Lucas, dainty creme dress with lace; Miss Page, creme cryst-talline, pretty hat with cerise; Miss G. Curtis, pale blue crepe de chine, pretty hat; Miss Penman, white muslin; Miss Robinson, white embroidered muslin, black hat; Miss Grosvenor, creme silk, dainty hat; Mrs Brownenor, creme silk, dainty hat; Mrs Smith, black silk, smart bonnet; Miss D. Eckley, pink crystalline, crinoline hat with pink roses.

WORSP-BISS.

St. Mark's Church, Remuera, Auckland, was the scene of a quiet, but very pretty, wedding when Miss Dorothy Biss, youngest daugiter of the late Mr S. M. Biss and Mrs Biss, Remuera, was married to Sydney Worsp, son of the late Captain Worsp. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr Noel Biss. There were two bridesmaids, the Misses Maud and Constance Biss, sisters of the bride, and the best man was Mr W. A. Beddoe. The church was prettily decorated, and crowded with interested spectators. Miss Dorothy Biss made a lovely bride, and it not often one sees such a charming trio as these three pretty sisters made. It is not often one sees such a charming brio as these three pretty sisters made. The bride wore a bridal robe of white charmense satin, made quite plainly, fitting close to the figure, with a long narrow train. Over this was a tonic of ninon, reaching just below the knees, clasped up, giving a panel effect, and bordered with wide embroidered ninon worked in a simple key pattern; the bodiec had dainty funishings of pearl embroidery and was, of course, collarless. A dainty cap of mange blossoms, from which hung the tulle veil, looked very pretty, and a lovely bouquet of white flowers completed an ideal bridal toilette. The bridesmaids wore frocks of charflowers completed an ideal bridal toilette. The bridesmaids wore frocks of charmenese satin in a lovely shade of sea blact made on similar lines to the bride's frock, but the tunies were of the finest French muslim with an embroidered border, and made with an allround effect. Smart black tagel straw hats were worn, and shaded pink bonquers made a charming thish. a charming finish.

worn, and shaded pink bouquets made a charming finish.

Mrs Hiss, mother of the bride, wore a grey toilette of cloth, beautifully braided, and a black bonnet with white baspreys. Mrs Edward Morton wore a very pretty frock of pale, blue silk with a tunie of black and white ninon, hordered with steel embroidery, smart black hat, and carried a bouquet of shaded hydraugeas. The bride's travelling, frock was very smart, being a cesat and skirt of silk shantnay in a pretty shade of grey. The rolled collar and cuffs were of spotted lawn edged with valenciemes. A hunch of cerise roser at the waist made an effective touch of colour. With this was worn a lovely white tagel straw hat with white wings, black cord rosettes, and lined with black. The tout ensemble being most charming and becoming. Mrs Harry Worsp wore pale blue silk veiled with grey minon, and a blue and white balt. Mrs Vaile wore a black toilette: Mrs Herbert Valle wore a very pretty white frock with smart torches of black, and hat to match: Mrs R. Biss, white embroidered muslin, and a black hat; Mrs Beatty wore grey and white with hut to match.

HAZLEWOOD-MORRIS.

HAZLEWOOD—MORRIS.

At St. Mark's Church, Wellington, last week, Miss Stella Morris, second daughter of Mr E. t. Morris, of Kührinie, was married to Mr Alfred Hazlewood, Newtown. The Rev. C. Askew was the officiating elergyman. The bride wore a pretty gown of cream satin charmense, with pearl trimmings on the corsage, voke and sheaves of cream silk net bordered with fringe. She also wore a Juliet cap of paarls, long tulle veil, and small spray of orange blossom. Her bouquet was a shower one, composed of white heather, roses and maiden-hair fern.

The bridesmails, Miss. Duleie Morris teister and Miss Mand Morris teonsin of the bride) were dressed differently, the former wearing a simple but effective gown of shell pink Oriental satin, the latter silver grey marquisette. They also were Juliet caps of silver, and their bouquets were of pink roses and carnetions.

wore duliet caps of silver, and their ban-quets were of pink roses and carractions. The brides mather wore mole volvet, with Oriental embroideries, grey sain toque with hance planes and she carried a bouquet of roses. Mrs Evatt (sister of the bride) wore French grey cost and skirt, grey picture but with plumes. Her bouguet was of pink dablias and carna-

After the ceremony appreception was held by the bride's mother. The tables were arranged with white flowers and ribbon streamers, from which hung silver ribbon streamers, from which alone bells.

The best man was Mr Hobday, and the groomman Mr L. A. Moore.

During the afternoon the bride and bridegroom left for Rotorua, where the honeymon is to be spent. Mrs Hazle-wood's travelling gown was a navy blue tailor-made, grey hat with shaded roses.

LOCK-PATTON.

A wedding of considerable interest was celebrated at St. John's Presbyterian Church, Methyen, Canterbury, when Miss celebrated at St. John's Presbytevian Church, Methven, Canterbury, when Miss Florence J. Patton, daughter of Mrs. M. J. Nee, "Three Springs," was married to Mr. Harold E. A. Jock, of "Zeltheim." The Rev. G. K. Aitken performed the ceremony, and the bride was given awny by her brother (Mr. G. Patton). The church was prettily decorated by friends of the bride, and the impressiveness of the ceremony was further enhanced by the presence in regalia of the members of the Masonic Lodge of which the bridegroom is a prominent member. The bride holds of the bride and veil; she carried an exquisite bouquet, which completed an elegant toilette. The bridesmaids — the Misses Marr (friends of the bride) and Miss Lock taister of the bridegroom)—wore pretty-dresses of erean striped delaine, trimmed with soutache, and cream hats to match. There were also two pretty little maids, (nieces of the bride), wearing dainty white frocks of embroidered muslim, and carrying baskets of flowers. Mr. J. Gillanders was best man, and Mr. F. Stone groomsman. After the ceremony the party, numbering about two hundred, Stone groomsman. After the ceremony the party, numbering about two hundred, adjourned to the Public Hall, where a adjointed to the Public Hall, where is sumptions wedding breakfast was provid-ed. The prescuts to the bride and bride-groom were numerous and bandsome. After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Lock left by motor-ear on their honeymoon trip.

GOEBY-SYMES.

The wedding of Miss Dorothy Symes to Mr. Michael Godby was solemnised at the Church of St. Michael and All Angels, Christelaurch, on Wednesday last. The marriage cereinony was performed by the Rev. H. D. Burton. The bride wore a handsome gown of lvory satin, with corsage and tunic of lovely Limerick lace, "and court train of white brocaded satin. Her veil was of tulle held in place by a begoning half Christelauch, on Wednesday satir, with coisage and timic of lovely Limerick lace, "and court train of white broeaded satin. Her veil was of tulle, held in place by a becoming half-wreath of orange blossom, and sile-carried a beautiful bouquet of stephanotis and white roses." The bride was accompanied by four bridesmakls—the Misses Park, Ogle, Craeroft Wilson and Beatrix Pyne, all of whom looked charming in simple frocks of white taffetas, with fichus of blonde net, edged with ruchings of silks, and hats of white straw with quillings of pale pink tulle, lined with pink satin. They carried bouquets of pink carnations. A small train-bearer, Miss Shoma Rhodes, also accompanied the bride, wearing a frock of white satin and gaipure lace, with bonnet to match. The bridegroom was supported by Messrs. R. Brittain. J. Anderson, Nanarrow, and A. Rhodes. After the ceremony the gnests were entertained at "Elecarton House," the residence of Mrs. John Deans, aunt of the bride. Mrs. Symes were a gown of black and white check foulard, with corsage and tunic of black innon, bordered with Inndsome Royal blue and gold bead embroidery, black tagel hat, with a tonch of Royal blue, bouquet of crimenous roses: Mrs. Doans, a handsome pown of black crope de chine, relieved with gold and black and gold bead embroidery, black tagel hat, with abonquet of cream roses; Mrs. F. Harris, frock of pale grey crepe de chine, large black hat with cluster of small flowers; Mrs. G. Rhodes, cinnamon brown filet net over white satin and gnipure insertion, large picture hat with shaded brown feathers; Mrs. J. Perry, of Anckland, gown of pale grey satin, black crimoline hat; Mrs. Thomas, of Timaru, pearl grey satin, whise Rhodes, reseda green marquisette over apricot satin and Oriental embroidery. Tuscan hat Hired with bbleck in veiled in white ribbon, small black hat; Miss Rhodes, reseds green marquisates over apricot satin and Oriental embroidery. Tus-an hat lined with black; Mrs. I. Deans, pale bine and white check muslin, relieved with lace, large white bat with black roses; Mrs. Cracroft Wilson, black Ottoman silk coat and skirt braided, small black hat with braided, small black hat with ostrich feathers; Mrs. G. Ronalds, pale grey floral muslin, with fichu of cream lace, dagel hat with purple panies; Mrs. Pyne, French grey silk crepe frock, manye hat; Miss Pyne, white ninon ever astin, with shadow sesh of floral silk, white hat; Mrs. Allen, black and white spotted foulard, with nat to match; Mrs. G. Gould, black and white spotted silk and guipure insertion, back and white hat with feathers; Miss Gould, blue and white spotted ninon, large white hat; Mrs. Juhus, black lace gown over deep cream satin, black bat; Mrs. Julius, blue and white mislin, blue hat; Mrs Wigram, black and white silk gown, small black hat with black mount; Miss Wigram (of England), black and white spotted foulard and lace, white hat with shaded roses; Mrs. C. Reid, royal blue satin veiled in black ninon, large black hat with silk gown, small black ninon, large black hat with pink roses; Mrs. Vernon, black and white silk roses; Mrs. Vernon, black and white silk fringe, hat with white ofeather; Mrs. Stead, grey crepe de chine bordered with fringe, hat with white ostrich feather; Mrs. Stead, black satin coat and skirt, mole fiat with shaded blue and mole foather; Mrs. H. Cotterill, blue serve coather: Mrs. H. Cotterill, blue serve coather. fringe, hat with white ostrich feathers; Mrs G. Stead, black satin coat and skirt, mole fiat with shaded blue and mole feather; Mrs H. Cotterill, blue serge coat and skirt, black and white toque; Miss Cotterill, blue linen coat and skirt, black hat; Mrs Beals, white ninon frock, white hat; Mrs Rice, black silk with lace coat, black hat with white flowers; Mrs W. Fox, blue cloth coat and skirt faced with blue, black hat; Mrs Nanearrow, grey crepe de chine, grey hat with black feathers; Miss Nanearrow, frock of white silk crepe, white satin hat with lace bow; Mrs Denniston, Coronation blue figured silk, small blue toque; Miss Denniston, white embroidered muslin over pink, leghorn hat with velvet feathers; Mrs McIlwraith, black silk, black bonnet; Mrs Neave, pale grey gown, grey bonnet; Mrs G. Merton, pearl grey satin, picture hat with feathers; Mrs Stevenson, sapphire blue ninon over white lace blue and white hat; Mrs Thomas, white satin veiled in black ninon, large black hat; Miss Thomas, bright pink poplin relieved with emerable green satin bands. satin veiled in black ninon, large black hat; Miss Thomas, bright pink poplin relieved with emerald green satin bands, black hat; Mrs J. Anderson, black and white voile, black chiffon turban with white mount; Misses Anderson, white white mount; Misses Anderson, white embroidered muslin frocks, oyster grey hats, with white feathers; Miss Kitson, white muslin, blue hat with flowers; Mrs. Blunt, grey cloth gown, black hat; Mrs. H. Reeves, white embroidered muslin, black hat with white ostrich feather; Mrs. Macdonald, black ninon over white satin, black hat; Mrs Macdonald, white broderic Anglaise frock, Leghorn hat with pink roses; Mrs. Bowden, black cloth, black bonnet; Miss Bowden, white crepe de chine, floral hat; Mrs. H. Lance, crepe de chine, floral hat; Mrs. H. Lance, cloth, black bonnet; Miss Bowden, white crepe de chine, floral hat; Mrs. H. Lance, black gown with white applique coat, black and white hat; Mrs. Wall, cream flamel coat and skirt, white hat with pink and red roses; Miss Boyle, white spotted foulard with overdress of white ninon, tagel hat; Mrs. J. Vernon, cream muslin hemmed with black silk, black and white hat; Mrs. J. Hall, black and white striped ninon, black hat; Mrs. J. Palmer, sapphire blue satin coat and muslin hemmed with black silk, black and white hat; Mrs. J. Hall, black and white striped minon. black hat; Mrs. J. Palmer, sapphire blue satin coat and skirt, small blue hat; Mrs. H. Wood, maize satin with Oriental embroidery, tagel hat with black feathers; Mrs. Wigley, mauve silk coat and skirt, black velvet hat with shaded roses; Miss Humphreys, saffron coloured and white figured silk crepe gown with cream lace, black hat; Miss Burton, dark blue coat and skirt, black hat; Miss Burton with fringed tanic of dull blue figured minon, large black hat, pink and white ostrich feathers. Others present were: Mesdames Hammer, W. Wood, Harper, Donald, Johnson, Manning, Anderson (2), Turnbull, Prins, Louisson, Phillips, Broderick, Day, Harris, Fisher, and Misses Anderson, Hammer Turnbull, Wood, Prins, Knight, Neave, Phillips, Broderick, Ruseell, Merton, Labart, Nedwill.

HER VIEW.

The brother.—She's got lovable eyes, kissable lips, a huggable shape, and hold able hands.

His Sixter.— Yes, and she's got removable hair. adjustable hips, colourable brows and a transferable complexion.

OBESITY Indigestion, Constipation, Stoop, Round Shoulders, Weak and First Chest, Spinal Curvature, Loss of Vigour, standard Cure D by special remedial exercise send for free particulars of INDIVIDUAL BY POST
TREATMENT BY POST
TO J. W. M. MARRISON,
Physical Culturiat & Masseur,
LY Edigrate Street, Wellington —

REGARDING SKIN TREATMENTS

In the matter of complexion treat-ments, as in all the other affairs of life, merit never hides behind the door of subterfuge.

3 to 100 -

Merit prefers open daylight. Merit welcomes comparison. Merit is neither afraid nor ashamed of its name; and does not assume fictitious ones. Merit has a name that it can be always proud

Just reflect for a moment how many Just reflect for a moment how many hundreds of face preparations women are daily asked to buy; products put forward irresponsibly, and under fictious names of proprietorship. No one has the least idea of the standing or identity of these persons who offer for sale the multifarious concections which they loudly proclaim to do an equal amount of good to any mixed number of people. The stupidity of it! people. The stupidity of it!

people. The stupidity of it!

On the other hand there is the splendid and celebrated series of facial specialities known under the general name of Valaze, each serving a particular purpose, none put forward as a cure-ail, all guaranteed by the hall-mark of the name of Mile. Helena Rubinstein, whose worldwide reputation speaks for itself, who vouches for the purity of her specialities, and who, without ambiguity, or equivocation, says exactly what each is for. The Valaze complexion is not "laid-on." It is due to the beneficent action of a skin-fool that enables Mother Nature to do her perfect work under ideal conditions. Write, and let us tell you all about it. "Beauty in the Making." Wile Rubing "Beauty in the Making." Wile Rubing

"Beauty in the Making," Mile, Rubinstein's book, post-free on application.

Valuze in jars, 4/ and 7/. All feading chemists, or direct, post free, from Valuze depot, City Chambers: Queen-street, Auckland: or Mile, Helena Rubinstein, Maison Valuze, Brandon-street, Welling.

Sunny Alberta's Farm Lands

PROCRESSIVE CALCARY'S TOWN SECTIONS AFFORD SAFE AND PROFITABLE INVESTMENTS FOR SURPLUS NEW ZEALAND CAPITAL

Correspondence is solicited by

CEDDES & SHEFFIELD

707a, FIRST STREET, EAST. CALGARY, ALBERTA, CANADA: 29 and 30 CHARING CROSS, S.W. LONDON, ENGLAND.

Bankers:

Canadian Bank of Commerce.

Send for "1000 Facts about Calgary" and "Progressive Calgary," published in the interests of Calgary and district; also, for the leaflet, "Sunny Alberta's Farm Lands" to also, for the leaflet, "S Farm Lands,"

The Western Canada Agency,

ANDREW GRAY

Established for the purpose of affording reliable information to those contemplating visiting or investing capital, in Western Canada; which is now, thanks to the enterprise of the Union S.S. Coy, Ltdt, of N.Z., and the Cunadian Pacific Railway, in much closer touch with New Zealand than are many parts of Australia, to which capital is finding its way.

Hobson Buildings. FORT STREET, AUCKLAND. Sussex Chambers. PANAMA STREET, WELLINGTON