

Photographs by A.W.H.

NORTH ISLAND BRASS BAND ASSOCIATION'S SUCCESSFUL CONTEST AT GISBORNE.

One of the most important results of this year's contest was the very favourable reception given to the proposed amalgamation with the South Island Association, the question being referred to the executive with power to act. (1) Waikato Federated Band, A grade, first in test, second in quickstep, and winners of Hoosey Shield and £175 cash. (2) W. Summers, Waikato, first in E flat soprano cornet solo. (3) G. Buckley, Waikato, first in B flat cornet solo. (4) R. Boyd, Waikato, winner B flat baritone solo. (5) Westport Garrison, A grade, third in test, quickstep, and Besson Shield. (6) Palmerston North, A grade, first in quickstep, and second in test and Besson Shield. (7) C. Clayton, Gisborne, winner B flat bass solo. (8) E. R. Milley, Gisborne, winner B flat flugel horn solo. (9) Waikato City, B grade, first in quickstep, and third in test and Hoosey Shield. (10) Gisborne City, B grade, first in test, second in quickstep, and winner of Hoosey Shield and £80. (11) Whangarei Municipal, B grade, second in test, third in quickstep, and second in Hoosey Shield.