

Barton, Photo.

OUR SEA-BORNE COMMERCE—BUSY SCENES ROUND THE WELLINGTON WHARVES.

(1) Steamers alongside the Railway Wharves in Wellington. (2) Loading cheese for export. A visit to the wharves of any of our big seaports will show to the most casual investigator the importance and tremendous growth of the dairying industry. Great liners lie alongside the wharves while the winches swing into their holds thousands of tons of butter and cheese for the markets of the world.