

Tomlinson, photo.
A DESTRUCTIVE FIRE AT TAUMARUNUI.
The photo shows the remains of Messrs. Winger and Smith's sawmill after the recent fire. The mill, with its machinery and stock, valued at about £2500, were all destroyed.

THE NEW MANUAL TRAINING SCHOOL AT DEVONPORT QUEENED.
The Devonport Manual Training School was formally opened last week by His Excellency Lord Islington. In the course of his remarks the Governor said that while it was his duty to perform such ceremonies as this, he wished to assure them that he came in to find no fault or perfunctory spirit. He had a considerable experience of educational matters, and appreciated the economic value of industrial education.

"EARLY MORNING, BAGLAN," BY WALTER WRIGHT.

"MORNING AFTER RAIN," BY F. WRIGHT.
THE AUCKLAND SOCIETY OF ARTS EXHIBITION.