

DON'T BUY STALE, SOFT, FLY-SPOTTED and SHOP-SOILED BISCUITS—BUT BEAUTIFULLY FRESH

Hygienic Biscuits PACKED IN THE Atlas Biscuit Factory

HANDED TO YOU IN SEPARATE PACKETS.

SWEET, FRESH, CRISP, and ABSOLUTELY FREE FROM ALL CONTAMINATION.

pretty dark green dress, with tucked net yoke and sleeves, black hat; Mrs. F. Jolly, grey Japanese silk, with blue pipings, large black hat; Mrs. T. Jolly, navy tailor-made, with satin facings, black fur hat with green plume; Mrs. Herdman, grey corduroy velvet coat and skirt, with touches of green, hat with plaid trimmings; Miss Jolly, dark costume, black and white hat; Mrs. Bull, cloth tailor-made, emerald-green hat; Miss Watty, grey costume, large hat; Mrs. Totman, blue cloth dress, fur hat; Mrs. Yule, cardinal frock with black braidings, large velvet hat to match; Mrs. Dickson, dark blue cloth dress with black trimmings, small blue velvet hat; Mrs. Tompkins, dark green silk, black hat; Mrs. Whyte, dark tailor-made, green toque; Mrs. Valder, sen., dark costume, white silk blouse, dark blue hat; Mrs. Harry Valder, dark grey corduroy velvet, with pretty Oriental trimmings, pale grey hat with blue velvet; Mrs. White, light grey costume, black velvet hat; Mrs. Grocott, grey frock, prettily trimmed, grey fur toque; Mrs. Coleman, black silk, with cream tucked net guimpe and black toque.

Personal.
Miss O'Neill has returned from her pleasant visit to Takapuna.
Mrs. Herdman returned on Friday from Auckland, where she was visiting her mother.
Mrs. Harry Valder is home again, looking better for her enforced rest.
Mrs. Gillies has taken her little ones to Auckland for a week or two.

CAMBRIDGE.

Surprise Party. July 13.
On Thursday evening a party of over thirty friends gave Miss Gwynneth, of "The Bungalow," a surprise party, in honour of her having enlarged the drawing room. The prime movers in the affair were: Mesdames Couper, Nicoll, E. Roberts and Miss Wells. Several tables were arranged for progressive bridge, and a very jolly evening was spent, the prizes being won by Miss C. Willis and Mr. Hindmarsh. A very dainty supper was provided by the visitors. Some very pretty frocks were worn. Mrs. Marshall was in a lovely frock of cream satin, with panels of fawn silk, with a deep hem of fawn satin, and tunic of cream silk tosea net, the same trimming the bodice; Mrs. Nicoll wore a most becoming frock of white satin, with tunic of gold beaded ninon and gold embroidery outlining the décolletage, and large bunch of violets in her belt; Mrs. Fraser, a dainty frock of pink satin, draped with pale blue ninon; Miss Dunne, in a smart pale pink satin charmeuse, with bodice and sleeves of guipure lace, draped with pink ninon; Miss H. Wells, a becoming frock of white satin charmeuse, with tunic of ninon, edged with silver fringe, and pretty pale pink dewdrop scarf; Mrs. Merideth, a stylish frock of emerald green velvet, trimmed with black; Miss C. Willis, a graceful gown of black net, spangled with silver; Mrs. Couper, in a smart black crepe de chine gown, the décolletage outlined with Oriental trimming; Miss Wells, a dainty frock of lemon coloured ninon over old rose, and trimmed with Oriental trimming in the same tones; Mrs. Mervyn Wells, white satin charmeuse, the bodice trimmed with pearl trimming, and white scarf; Miss Atfield, a dainty frock of white satin; Miss Hill, a becoming frock of pale pink crepe, piped with claret coloured velvet; Mrs. Roberts, black satin charmeuse, bodice handsomely trimmed with jet, and tucker of white chiffon, and a bunch of violets on corsage; Miss Gwynneth, black satin and net gown; Miss Brooks, white silk frock, trimmed with silver; Miss Middleton looked pretty in rose pink silk; Mrs. Gibbons, a lovely frock of Nattier blue ninon, covered with beads the same shade, and made over a golden russet silk; Miss Horrell, black silk gown, with cream guimpe and sleeves, and black pinon scarf; Miss Jay, a frock of Royal blue silk, trimmed with black silk. The men were: Messrs. Caldwell, Hammond, Meredith, Bown, Wells, Fraser, Marshall, Willis, Middleton, Palmer, Mortimer-Jones, Hindmarsh.

Golfers.
On Tuesday a party of thirteen Hamilton lady golfers arrived by the 11:30 a.m. train in Cambridge, where they were met by a brake provided by the local Club, and driven out to the links. They had invited Mrs. Nicoll and Miss Wells to join them, and a most enjoyable day was spent on the links. They brought their lunch and afternoon tea with them, and returned home by the train in the evening. They have invited a party of lady golfers from the local Club to go through on Wednesday, and pay a return visit, which they intend doing, weather permitting.

GISBORNE.

July 13.
The weather was beautifully fine for the race meeting last week. A large and fashionable assembly were present. Mrs. Symons wore a mauve costume, smart black hat; Mrs. W. McCredie, grey coat and skirt, black picture hat; Mrs. Jex-Blake, black face cloth coat and skirt, large green satin hat with black Lancer plumes; Mrs. C. D. Bennett, blue costume, hat trimmed with pink; Miss D. Bennett, tweed coat and skirt, collar and cuffs of Oriental satin, emerald green hat; Mrs. O. Sainsbury, grey velvet Empire dress, grey hat with pink feathers; Miss Crawford, mole face cloth costume, blue satin hat with blue feathers; Miss H. Sherratt, pale grey costume, black hat; Mrs. W. Smith, pale fawn costume, black beaver toque; Mrs. W. Sherratt, saxe blue dress, blue velvet hat; Miss Schumacher (Christchurch), navy blue costume, beaver hat with bunches of red berries; Mrs. J. Henderson, velvet coat and skirt, mole hat with pink roses; Mrs. Stevens, brown coat and skirt, black picture hat; Miss M. Williamson, black velvet costume, black picture hat with white feather; Mrs. White, grey costume, set of white fox furs; Mrs. Kells, grey coat and skirt, pink satin hat with black feathers; Mrs. J. W. Williams, blue cloth costume, black hat; Mrs. Thorne George, saxe blue costume, squirrel furs; Mrs. J. Blair, blue frock braided in black, black hat; Mrs. Gover, tweed coat and skirt, black furs; Miss M. Rees, blue costume, black hat with blue trimmings; Mrs. F. Parker, velvet coat, black toque with red wings; Mrs. R. Crawford, navy blue tailor-made, royal blue felt hat; Mrs. J. M. Gouldsmith, white face cloth, grey hat with pink feathers; Mrs. J. Barry, wine-coloured coat and skirt, black hat; Mrs. I. Clayton, slate-coloured costume, hat trimmed with emerald; Miss E. Williamson, mauve costume, picture hat; Mrs. J. Harding, dark tweed costume, black toque; Miss Willis, dark green costume, black hat; Mrs. Willock, grey cloth costume, black seal hat; Mrs. H. de Lautour, blue serge, braided in grey velvet dress, black hat; Mrs. Arthur Rees, navy blue, black velvet hat black, black beaver hat; Mrs. E. Adair, with brown wings; Mrs. Pattullo, mauve cloth costume, straw hat with black feathers; Mrs. J. Murphy, biscuit-cloth costume, hat with pale pink trimming; Mrs. Stock, blue costume, black hat; Mrs. Buscke, navy blue tailor-made, hat with blue osprey; Mrs. J. Dods, blue serge, smart fur toque; Miss D. Falkner, frieze costume, grey hat trimmed with fruit.

NAPIER.

July 13.
Go!f.
On Saturday last the Ladies' Club played a stroke handicap competition over the nine-hole course. Quite a crowd of ladies go out on Saturdays, and even if they do not indulge in a game it makes a pleasant outing and a very excellent tea is always provided. On Thursday it rained very hard, but notwithstanding the first round of the championship was played. Among the players were: Mrs. Hector Smith, Mrs. Bernau, Mrs. Edgar, Mrs. S. C. Moore, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Kelly, Mrs. Gould, Miss Kettle, Miss Davis, Miss Dinwiddie, Miss Balfour, Miss Dean.

Personal.
Mrs. Glendinning, of Wairoa, is staying in Napier for a few days.
Mrs. Cockburn-Hood, of Masterton, who was staying in Napier for some time, left for her home last week.
Mr. and Mrs. Absolum, of Rissington, are in town for a few days.
The marriage of Miss Margoliouth to Mr. Yeates, of Wanganni, will take place in the Napier Cathedral next month.
Mrs. U. Margoliouth, of Gisborne, is staying with Mrs. John Humphries, Bluff Hill.
Mr. and Miss Clark, of Hedgely, Pelane, are spending the winter in Australia.
Mr. and Mrs. Barron are going South this week for a holiday.
Mr. and Miss Hoadley left for Wellington on Wednesday, en route for England. During their absence, Mrs. Hoadley and Miss Nina Hoadley will be staying in Hastings with Mr. Val. Hoadley.

DANNEVIRKE.

July 13.
Dance.
Miss Emma Robertson's third "Cinderella" dance was held in the Odd-fellows' Hall on Friday night. It was an ideal night for dancing, bright and frosty, and everything went with a merry swing from start to finish. Miss Robertson has decided to make the next dance a "mask and donning," which always causes lots of amusement. Amongst those present on Friday night were: Mesdames Rathbone, Hargill, MacGibbon, Bottrell, Skerman, Nair, Quigley, Wallace, Misses Young, Hartgill, Irvine, Couper (2), Morrish (Palmerston), Baker, Greig (Auckland), MacGibbon, Chadwick, Knight, Coombs (Palmerston), Barry, Edkins, Burnet (Wanganui), Hobbay, Herbert, Barker, Messrs. Skerman, Bottrell, MacGibbon, Rathbone, Quigley, Harker, Wells, Tennent, Edwards, Robertson, Taylor, Norris, Sively, Knight, Pettit, Russell, Wellwood, Kelleher, Wilson, Barker, Edkins, Macdonald.

Personal.
Mr. W. Melville, who has been assistant-Clerk of the Court for some time,

"ATLAS" RANGES

Still Leading!

Why? BECAUSE

They Cannot be Beaten
They are ECONOMICAL
They COOK splendidly

Once Used—they are always Used
They will Burn any kind of fuel
They are Beautifully Finished

THEY ARE RIGHT IN PRICE

SCOTT BROS. LIMITED, Christchurch

Have Revolutionised the Making of Cooking Ranges in New Zealand
The ATLAS series of cooking ranges consists of The ATLAS,
The PEERLESS, The RECORD, The UNIQUE.

