Unbounded enthusiasm prevailed amongst the three thousand people who gathered at the Wellington Town Hall last Monday night to participate in the reorganisation and rebuilding consequent upon the accession to power of the Reform party. The Prime Minister and four of his colleagues addressed the meeting, and the keynote of most of the speeches was a combined declaration of the Reform party and Ministry to pursue a policy of democratic progress. The gathering carried with a great outburst of enthusiasm, a resolution expressing confidence in the Prime Minister, and his colleagues, and a declaration of the Reform party, the Prime Minister, and his colleagues, to pursue a policy of democratic progress. The Hon. W. Massey is seated at the table with the Chairman (Mr. C. H. Morrison).
