

MISS FLORENCE IMESON.

Principal boy in "Sinbad the Sailor," J. C. Williamson, Ltd.'s pantomime, which opens in Auckland on August 31st.

THE FATHER OF WELLINGTON.

Mr. J. J. Taine is 96 years of age, and landed in Wellington about the same time as the late Sir John Logan Campbell arrived at Auckland. Mr. Taine enjoys the best of health, and recently left on a holiday visit to Sydney.

See "Our Illustrations."

MR. H. R. MILLER.

Joint manager, with Mr. J. E. Blue, of the New South Wales Rugby League team, who arrive in Wellington on the 20th inst. to commence a tour of the Dominion.

MISS HELEN BARNES.

Who is touring New Zealand in the interests of the Y.W.C.A., of which she has been appointed Australasian travelling secretary.

MR. J. E. BLUE.

Who, with Mr. H. R. Miller, will act as joint manager of the New South Wales Rugby League team during the New Zealand tour. They play in Auckland on August 31st and September 7th.

RIGHT REV. DR. DANIEL MANNIX.

President of St. Patrick's College, Maynooth, Ireland, reported to be appointed coadjutor to Archbishop Carr, of Melbourne, with the right of succession.

MISS ZOE BARTLEY.

Who, with Mr. H. C. Borradaile, is giving a dramatic and vocal recital in the Concert Chamber of the Auckland Town Hall next Saturday evening.

MR. H. C. BORRADAILE.

See "Music and Drama."

THE NEW ZEALAND POLICEMAN'S NEW UNIFORM.

The photo shows the new police uniform which has been adopted in the Dominion. The shako is replaced by a helmet, and the tunic is different from the pattern now in use.

THE FIRST OF THE SEASON.

A couple of early lambs, which were born on the way to the Auckland saleyards last week.