

THE ROYAL BARGE, WITH KING GEORGE, QUEEN MARY, AND PRINCESS MARY ON BOARD, PASSING DOWN THE RIVER.

Topical, photo.

SPECTATORS IN BOATS SALUTING THE ROYAL BARGE WITH SCULLS UPRAISED.

THEIR MAJESTIES' VISIT TO HENLEY.—PICTURESQUE SCENES OF THE FAMOUS REGATTA.

Brilliant weather marked the closing day of the Henley Regatta, and never has the river looked gay^{er} than it did for the Royal visit, says an English paper. As their Majesties moved up and down the course, first in the Royal barge and then in the umpire's launch, they were welcomed all along the blue by the largest crowd ever attracted to Henley.