HAWERA, Sept. 7.

Dance.

Quite the most successful of the small dances held this winter was the one given by Mrs Walter Powdrell at her pretty residence last Friday evening. The dance was given in honour of Mrs Powdrell's niece, Miss Coutts, who has been visiting friends in Hawera for some weeks. The drawing and dining rooms connected with the folding doors made an ideal room for dancing. The decorations of bulbs and other spring flowers, were much admired. Excellent music was supplied by Mrs Bowen and Miss Connell, extras by Mrs O'Callaghan, Miss Reilly, Messrs Trewick and Whiteford. Mrs Powdrell was wearing a pretty frock of blue and gold spot effect, trimmed with cream lace and touches of gold; Miss Coutts, moss green velvet, with gold beaded trimming; Mrs O'Callaghan, black silk, skirt draped with a flourish of cream lace; Mrs Page, black crepe de chine, corsage trimmed with blue embroidery; Mrs Williams, pink charmeuse, cream lace on corsage; Miss Reilly, white charmeuse with Brussels net tunic, edged with fringe; Miss C. Reilly, white spotted muslin, trimmed with insecton; Miss Williamson, white net frock, tunic edged with green fringe; Miss White, black headed ninon overdress over white satin; Miss Williams, heliotrope charmeuse, with ninon tunic of a deeper shade; Miss Stringer, white crepe, with touches of silver; Miss W. Stringer, saxe blue chiffon tulle; Miss Green, black tulle, relieved with pearl embroidery; Miss G. Glenn, cream and ninon over satin; Miss R. Nolan, black crepe, trimmed with blue and gold embroidery; Miss G. Nolan, black velvet, white lace bertha; Miss Revell, black silk corsage trimmed with shaded blue embroidery; Miss Hay, pale blue ninon; Miss Douglas, pink satin, with tunic of grey ninon; Miss Caplen, grey tulle; Miss E. Dr. Truby King's Mission.

A number of ladies have held themselves to the opportunity to meet Dr. Truby King on Monday morning at Nurse Stronach's Private Hospital, when in a very impressive address he strongly advocated the necessity of forming a society for the protection of young children and having a "Plunket Nurse" to visit the town as frequently as convenient. The project was warmly taken up by the ladies present, and Mrs. Budge was selected president of the society and Miss Stronach secretary. Mrs. King was also present at the gathering.

On Tuesday evening at the Town Hall Dr. Truby King gave a lecture to an attentive and interested audience, chiefly on the care and feeding of infants.

At the Theatre.

"The Dandies" appeared at the Town Hall on Wednesday evening to a crowded audience. Among those present I noticed: Mr. and Mrs. Grant, Mr. and Mrs. Wake, Dr. and Mrs. Menzies, Dr. and Mrs. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Malone, Mr. and Mrs. Cunniffe, Mr. and Mrs. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Budge, Mr. and Mrs. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Stubbs, Mrs. Crawshaw, Captain and Mrs. Lampin, Mr. and Mrs. Bond, Mr. and Mrs. Gidd.

PICTON.

September 7.

The combined hockey social was held last Wednesday in the Albert Hall. There was a very good attendance, the male sex predominating. The music was supplied by the local orchestra, and extras played by Misses Sheen, Chambers, and Messrs Cook, Bush, and McIntosh. The supper supplied by residents was one of the very best ever placed on the tables. The secretaries of the social, Miss Whalley and Mr. H. Simmonds, with the committee, are to be
