

Clothes white as snow

Mrs. M. Wren, of Annandale, Sydney, writes:—

"If you use 'Sunlight Soap' you can get your washing done much quicker. My way is to soak the clothes well for half an hour with Sunlight Soap and warm water, no boiling is required. At the end of this time the dirt comes completely out with hardly any rubbing, and the clothes when dry are as white as snow."

"If you have a cut or sore on your finger you needn't bother about it for Sunlight Soap will do it more good than harm."

Woodward's Gripe Water in British India.

"The demand for 'Woodward's Gripe Water' during the past year, has been tremendous. The older generation recommends it to the younger; friends speak to friends of its efficacy, and thus a steady sale is always going on. Certain families always keep a few bottles in reserve. A medical man here has used 36 bottles in his own nursery."
