

BOY SCOUTS IN CAMP NEAR HAMILTON.

Thakuka, photo.

About eighty scouts attended the recent camp at Tamahere, near Hamilton, comprising patrols from Hamilton, Franklin, Te Awamutu, and Cambridge. The camp was under the command of Scoutmaster Rev. W. E. Connolly, of Cambridge, and Scoutmaster Hibberds, of Te Awamutu. (1) Te Awamutu tent, under Patrol Leader Lark—winners of the prize for the best kept tent. (2) The morning drill. (3) Church parade on Sunday morning.

FORDING THE WAIRAU RIVER AT RENWICK.

Camroun, photo.

The photos show how the Wairau River used to be crossed at Renwick, about seven miles from Blenheim. The river is now spanned by the fine bridge shown on the opposite page. (1) The Nelson mail coach crossing the river. (2) Timber wagon fording the Wairau.