

Anderson, photo, LOOKING ACROSS THE GOLF LINKS AT HOKOWHITU, PALMERSTON NORTH.

BEHIND STRUBBS, PHOTO.
 COMPETITORS AT THE NEW ZEALAND CHESS ASSOCIATION'S CHAMPIONSHIP TOURNAMENT.
 The Chess Tournament concluded on January 7, when J. C. Grierson won the championship after playing a brilliant game with the black pieces having only one draw. The players having finished the tournament were: C. B. Skelton (Gisborne), C. E. Brown (Auckland), W. M. Mason (Wellington), E. K. Keating (Wellington), W. M. Mason (Wellington), E. K. Keating (Wellington), W. M. Mason (Gisborne), (Nelson). Front row: E. Hicks (Napier), G. C. Cole (Waikato), E. H. Sweeney (Christchurch), R. J. Barnes (Wellington W.M.C.C.),
 A. W. Gyles (Westport), H. L. James (Wellington).

A RUSH HUT AT PORT FITZROY, GREAT BARRIER.

J. P. Cairns, photo.
 THE RESULT OF A MORNING'S SHARK FISHING AT PORT FITZROY, GREAT BARRIER.
 Sharks are plentiful in the warm waters of the Hauraki Gulf during the summer, and nearly every fisherman considers it his duty to wage war against them. Shark-fishing is an exciting sport, which is to be enjoyed at many places close to Auckland.
 The photo shows half a dozen sharks, averaging about six feet in length.