

Young Auckland Inspected

SNAPSHOTS ON BOARD THE WARSHIP DURING THE DAY SET APART FOR

(1) Explaining the working of the searchlight. The officers and crew were indefatigable in their kindness and courtesy to the thousands of their young guests, who ranged all over the great vessel and explored every nook and cranny to which they could possibly gain admittance. (2) Children inspecting the working of the guns. (3) Artillery gaged in repairing a gun damaged by