

OUTLINING THE EVIDENCE.

A GOOD EXAMPLE

"Pa, what's an inscrutable smile?"
 "It's the kind, my son, your mother had on her face this morning when I told her business might keep me out late to-night."

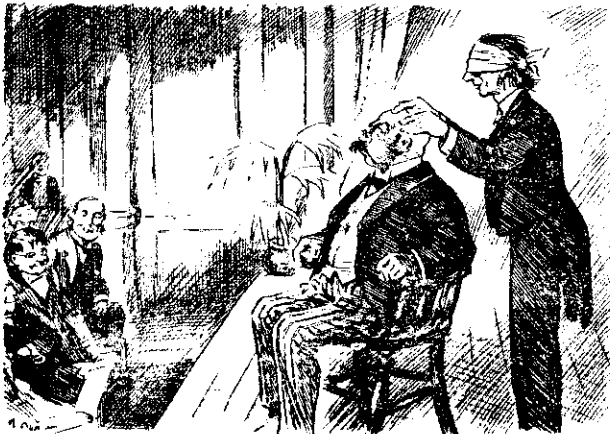

Parkay: "Do you remember Mrs. de la Ware who was divorced last spring? She is going on the stage next winter."
 Jay: "Becoming an actress?"
 Parkay: "No; simply going on the stage."

Shopper: "I want to buy a necktie suitable for my husband."
 Salesman: "Sorry, madam, but we are not permitted to sell neckties to women who are unaccompanied by men."

AN EFFECT OF THE UNITED STATES CUSTOMS REGULATIONS

To facilitate investigation when returning from abroad, make it clear that you have nothing to conceal.

POOR JONES!

Blindfold Phrenologist: "Gentlemen, this attempt to deceive me with a watermelon has been tried before, but it won't work. I can tell vegetable matter at first touch!"

Borleigh: "I hope my call has not tired you."
 Miss Keen: "Oh, no. I inherit a wonderfully strong constitution."

"Pa, what's a genius?"
 "Ask your mother, she married one."
 "Why, I didn't know ma had been married twice."

MILITANTS

As they are

As they think they are.

As they appear to the police and shopkeepers.

LITERAL OBEDIENCE.

The new bishop had informed the high church clergy he "would tolerate no testaments save surplices or stoles."

"Now that's what I call a bloumin' shame. Game preserves, I s'pose. Just the kind of a place for a picnic, too."
