

Clydesdale. Afterspending five years in pastoral and agricultural pursuits in Sutherland, Mr. Denniston resul for Otago. Mr. Denniston, himself an old athlete, has always taken a keen interest in all athletic matters, and turned to Dunedin in 1867, and ever since has been identified with commerce. He commenced business for himself in partnership with the late Mr. Francis Renshaw in 1877, and in 1882 the business was absorbed into the well-known concern of Neill and Co. (Ltd.), Dunedin.

has been President of the Dunedin A.A. Club and Dunedin Football Club.

MR. J. ANNAND, Mayor of Mornington, is a native of Aberdeen. He arrived in Dunedin twenty-six years ago, and has resided there ever since. He is a carpenter

After acting as Managing Director for over eleven years, Mr. Denniston took an extended trip to England and America. Since his return he has been in business on his own account. Mr. Denniston has been President of the Dunedin Chamber of Commerce for no less than six years at different times. He has acted as Lloyd's agent for Otago for seventeen years, and also holds the position of Belgian Con-by trade, having started business on his own account fourteen years ago. He has been responsible for the erection of some of the best buildings in Dunedin, viz., the A.M.P. Buildings, the Grand Hotel, Butterworth Bros.' warehouse, and many other fine buildings. Mr. Annand has has served six years in the Mornington Borough Council, this being his second year as Mayor. The ratepayers petitioned different times. He has acted as Lloyd's agent for Otago for seventeen years, and also holds the position of Belgian Con-

1. Mr. E. Murrell. 2. Mr. T. Mackenzie. 3. Mr. F. De St. Orme. 4. Mr. J. Pollock. 5. Mr. G. L. Denniston. 6. Mr. A. Todd. 7. Mr. H. Wilson. 8. Mr. J. Mill. 9. Mr. W. B. Anderson.