

Chas. Hemus, photo.

Lord Northland.

Auckland.

Viscount Northland is the only son
VISCOUNT of His Excellency
NORTHLAND the Governor and the Countess of Ranfurly. He attained his majority on the thirteenth of last month. He was educated at Eton, and choosing the army as a profession, proceeded to the Royal Military College, Sandhurst. Not long after joining the army he was fortunate enough to have the distinct advantage of seeing active service with the Coldstream Guards in South Africa. The appointment of aide-de-camp to his father was given him in December last. During his previous visit to New Zealand with his tutor, and in his new capacity, he has created an exceedingly favourable impression, and made many friends.

---

By the departure of Mr. A. J. W. Bunz, in April, Mr. A. J. W. BUNZ for Europe, Christchurch has temporarily lost a musician of generally recognised ability. Beginning as choir boy in St. Luke's Church, Christchurch, under Mr. Normington, he made rapid progress in musical acquirements and in the development of his inherited artistic talent. As viola player in his father's orchestra, he