COMING EVENTS.

- January 25 and 26—Cricket match, Fiji v. Auckland January 26—Judges Bay Regatta January 29—Auckland Regatta February 22 and 23—New Zealand Amateur Athletic Championship Meeting at Napier February 2—Auckland Yacht Club Annual Races February 9—Auckland Yacht Club Races

CRICKET.

The Fijian cricket team, who intend making an extended tour of New Zealand, playing matches at the various centres, arrived in Auckland from Suva by the s.s. Taviuni on Monday last, a hearty welcome being extended them on arrival by the Auckland Cricket Association. During the week members of the local association have been entertaining the visitors to the best of their ability, showing them the various places of interest in and around Auckland, and doing all within their power to make the sojourn of the team in our midst a pleasant one. The Fijian team have been putting in a deal of practice on the Domain in view of the forthcoming contest, and judging by the manner in which they shape I should say the match will prove a very interesting one, and with fine weather should be witnessed by a large number of spectators. It is rather unfortunate that the Hon. W. L. Allardyce was unable to accompany the visiting team, as he is one of their most dashing bats, a good field, and a fair change bowler.

Another round of championships was concluded on Saturday afternoon last, fine weather and a good wicket favouring the players. The Parnell-Gordon contest proved the centre of attraction, as the other senior match had been practically won by Auckland on the previous Saturday; Going in with 36 to their credit for a loss of one wicket, the Parnellites settled down to overtake the 112 registered by their opponents, which they succeeded in doing just after the fall of the fourth wicket, the innings subsequently closing for 147. Gordon went in for their second innings, but after the fall of two wickets the call of time proclaimed the close of the game, Parnell gaining the verdict by 35 runs on the first innings.

Ike Mills' meritorious contribution of 69 to the 147 made by Parnell in their first innings is responsible for the result of the game, and he well deserved the applause accorded him on his return to the pavilion after his fine exhibition. This is the highest individual senior score for the past two seasons.

Wright's quota of 18 was also the result of good cricket. This player stands next to Mills in point of the season's top score.

Patterson laid on the timber in fine style for his contribution of 11, and if he continues to hit freely will be responsible for some tidy scores.

Friend Holle seems to be coming back to form again, and made things very merry for his contribution of 10.

If Captain Lawson had played a little more carefully he would have been responsible for more than a single. However, he made amends for his poor display with the willow by capturing five Gordon wickets for 33 runs.

For the losing team Dr Pabst proved most prominent in the batting department with a well earned 44 to his credit, Norman Williams coming next best with 24. The latter also captured four wickets for 30 runs, Ball capturing 1 for 2.

With a loss of four wickets for 22 runs, Auckland continued their innings, the conclusion of which brought the score to the very respectable total of 155. This proved a crushing defeat for United, who failed in two innings to reach within 58 of the score registered by Auckland in their first essay.

For Auckland T. Neill proved best with the bat, compiling his 57 (not out) by most careful and painstaking cricket. The grand fielding of the Auckland team was all that could be wished for, not a single chance being missed.

Jack Arneil secured seven wickets for 24 runs, a truly grand performance, C. Stone being next best with two for 15. Arneil should have been chosen to play against Fiji.

United's second innings proved even a more dismal display than their first essay, the only man to make any stand being G. Hay (15). Their fielding was also very much off colour.
